and redefining the canon of modern Jewish fiction the volume juxtaposes major authors with more marginal figures revising and recuperating individual reputations rediscovering forgotten and discovering new work and in the process remapping the whole terrain This volume opens windows onto vistas that previously had been obscured and opens doors for the next generation of studies that could not proceed without a wide ranging visionary empiricism grounding their work The Edinburgh Companion is a paradigm changing event and nothing in Jewish literary studies that follows can fail to pay close attention to it Key Features Highlights the rich diversity of the field and identifies its key themes including immigration the Diaspora the Holocaust Judaism assimilation antisemitism and Zionism Analyses the main trends in Anglophone Jewish fiction and situates them in historical context Discusses the place of Anglophone Jewish fiction in relation to critical debates concerning transatlanticism and transnationalism ethnicity and identity politics postcolonial studies feminist studies and Jewish Studies With a preface by Mark Shechner the volume contains 28 essays by contributors including Vicki Aarons Trinity University Texas Debra Shostak Wooster College Ohio Ira Nadel University of British Columbia Efraim Sicher Ben Gurion University Phyllis Lassner Northwestern University Sue Vice University of Sheffield Lori Harrison Kahan Boston College Ruth Gilbert University of Winchester Beate Neumeier University of Cologne and Sandra Singer University of Guelph David Brauner is Professor of Contemporary Literature at The University of Reading Axel Staer is Reader in Comparative Literature at the University of Kent Canterbury

The Literature Lover's Book of Lists Judie L. H. Strouf, 1999-09-15 Wonderful for browsing and invaluable for finding specific information Literature Lovers Book of Lists is a compendium of useful and sometimes whimsical information for anyone who loves books and loves to read at any age or reading level It is organized into nine sections and provides nearly 200 lists relating to genres authors characters and settings awards literary terms with their definitions and much more There are even lists of books of prose and poetry available on audiocassettes If it has to do with literature this book has the answers What book has had the longest run on The New York Times best seller list Who is the only four time winner of the Pulitzer Prize for drama What is the complete list of Shakespeare's plays and poems Who are some of the most notable African American authors What are the three main variations of the sonnet What famous writers belonged to The Bloomsbury Group Literature Lovers Book of Lists is both exciting and informative at the same time

Included are entries for both well known and relatively obscure novelists many of whom are just becoming established as significant literary figures While the volume profiles major canonical figures such as Saul Bellow Norman Mailer and Bernard Malamud it also aims to be more inclusive than other works on contemporary Jewish American writers Thus there are entries for gay and lesbian novelists such as Lev Raphael and Judith Katz whose works challenge the more orthodox definition of Jewish religious and cultural traditions Art Spiegelman whose controversial MAUS established a new genre by combining elements of the comic book and the conventional novel and newcomers such as Steve Stern and Max Apple who have become more prominent within the last decade Each entry includes a brief biography a discussion of major works and themes an overview of the novelist's critical reception and a bibliography of primary and secondary sources A thoughtful introduction summarizes Jewish American fiction after World War II and a selected general bibliography lists additional sources of information Since World War II Jewish American novelists have made numerous significant contributions to contemporary literature Authors of earlier generations would frequently write about the troubles and successes of Jewish immigrants to America and their works would reflect the world of European Jewish culture But like other immigrant groups Jewish Americans have become increasingly assimilated into mainstream American culture Many feel the loss of their heritage and long for something to replace the lost values of the old world This reference book includes alphabetically arranged entries for more than 75 Jewish American novelists whose major works were largely written after World War II Included are entries for both well known and relatively obscure novelists many of whom are just becoming established as significant literary figures While the volume profiles major canonical figures such as Saul Bellow Norman Mailer and Bernard Malamud it also aims to be more inclusive than other works on contemporary Jewish American writers Thus there are entries for gay and lesbian novelists such as Lev Raphael and Judith Katz whose works challenge the more orthodox definitions of Jewish religious and cultural traditions Art Spiegelman whose controversial MAUS established a new genre by combining elements of the comic book and the conventional novel and newcomers such as Steve Stern and Max Apple who have become more prominent within the last decade Each entry includes a brief biography a discussion of major works and themes an overview of the novelist's critical reception and a bibliography of primary and secondary sources A thoughtful introduction summarizes Jewish American fiction after World War II and a selected general bibliography lists additional sources for information

Literary Community-Making Roger D. Sell, 2012 The writing and reading of so called literary texts can be seen as processes which are genuinely communicational They lead that is to say to the growth of communities within which individuals acknowledge not only each other's similarities but differences as well In this new book Roger D Sell and his colleagues apply the communicational perspective to the past four centuries of literary activity in English Paying detailed attention to texts both canonical and non canonical by Amelia Lanyer Thomas Coryate John Boys Pope Coleridge Arnold Kipling William Plomer Auden Walter Macken Robert Kroetsch Rudy Wiebe and Lyn Hejinian the book shows how the communicational issues of addressivity commonality dialogicality and ethics have arisen in widely different historical contexts At a metascholarly level it suggests that the communicational criticism of literary texts has significant cultural social and political roles to play in the postmodern era of rampant globalization      Perspectives on Mordecai Richler Michael E. Darling,1986      Muscling in on New Worlds Raanan Rein,David Sheinin,2014-11-13 Muscling in on New Worlds brings together a dynamic new collection of studies that approach sport as a window into Jewish identity formation in the Americas Articles address football soccer yoga boxing and other sports as crucial points of Jewish interaction with other communities and as vehicles for reconciling the legacy of immigration and Jewish distinctiveness in new world national and regional contexts      Paper Trails Roy MacGregor,2023-08-01 One of Canada's greatest journalists shares a half century of the stories behind the stories From his vantage point harnessed to a tree overlooking the town of Huntsville he tended to wander a very young Roy MacGregor got in the habit of watching people what they did who they talked to where they went He has been getting to know his fellow Canadians and telling us all about them ever since From his early days in the pages of Maclean's to stints at the Toronto Star Ottawa Citizen National Post and most famously from his perch on page two of the Globe and Mail MacGregor was one of the country's must read journalists While news media were leaning increasingly right or left he always leaned north his curiosity trained by the deep woods and cold lakes of Algonquin Park to share stories from Canada's farthest reaches even as he worked in the newsrooms of its southern capitols From Parliament to the backyard rink subarctic shores to prairie expanses MacGregor shaped the way Canadians saw and thought about themselves never entirely untethered from the land and its history When MacGregor was still a young editor at Maclean's the 21 year old chief of the Waskaganish aka Rupert's House Crees Billy Diamond found in Roy a willing listener as the chief was appealing desperately to newsrooms across Ottawa trying to bring attention to the tainted water emergency in his community Where other journalists had shrugged off Diamond's appeals MacGregor got on a tiny plane into northern Quebec From there began a long friendship that would one day lead MacGregor to a Winnipeg secret location with Elijah Harper and his advisors a host of the most influential Indigenous leaders in Canada as the Manitoba MPP contemplated the Charlottetown Accord and a vote that could shatter what seemed at the time the country's last chance to save Confederation This was the sort of exclusive access to vital Canadian stories that Roy MacGregor always seemed to secure And as his ardent fans will discover the observant small town boy turned pre eminent journalist put his rare vantage point to exceptional use Filled with reminiscences of an age when Canadian newsrooms were populated by outsized characters outright rogues and passionate practitioners the unputdownable Paper Trails is a must read account of a life lived in stories      The Morality of Laughter F.
