from the First Edition This edition differs from the First Edition University of Oregon Books 1967 in three ways An essay is added Everymans Ontological Argument has been inserted as Essay 14 following two other essays about the ontological argument Everymans Ontological Argument was published in the Fall 1978 issue of Philosophical Investigations The original Chapter 14 Where the Action Is is now Chapter 15 An essay is replaced The original Essay 3 How Philosophers See Stars has been replaced by a modified version that was printed in Philosophy Today no 2 1969 The replacement includes some further improvements The text is improved Throughout the book the author has made corrections stylistic improvements and changed the wording as needed to make clearer his line of thought Summary Each of the fifteen essays takes up a philosophical problem In most of the essays Ebersole first clarifies the problem and reviews common attempts to resolve the problem Then he focuses on the central ideas and terms used to state the problem and creates examples of people using the terms under consideration The examples are unique because of their focus on the context and point of what we say If his investigations fail to find a use of the terms that supports the philosophical problem he is led to conclude that the problem does not really derive from a philosophical insight but rather arises from a philosophical picture or model Preface The essays in Things We Know address some of the perennial philosophical problems of knowledge The essays are unified by being similar in method and philosophic aim Ebersole exposes a picture behind each problem In the essays he works through some of the ways that pictures control our thinking and tries to make the pictures less compelling Chapters 1 6 Perception and Language Chapter 1 Seeing Red in Red Things Philosophical problem Must words for simple visual properties e g red refer to things because the things share some property e g redness Can we see this property Topics investigated Family resemblances properties of colors when we regard things as the same when we regard colors as the same when we regard things as having common properties language world philosophical pictures Philosophers discussed A J Ayer J Herder J S Mill Chapter 2 Seeing Things Philosophical problem Do hallucinations and afterimage Directory of Electronic Journals, Newsletters, and Academic Discussion Lists ,1992 With 1992 Includes electronic journals electronic newsletters Hypercard stacks digest newsletters and academic discussion lists and interest groups Creative Writing in the Community Terry Ann Thaxton,2013-11-07 Creative Writing in the Community is the first book to focus on the practical side of creative writing Connecting classroom experiences to community based projects it prepares creative writing students for teaching in schools homeless centers youth clubs and care homes Each chapter is packed with easy to use resources including specific lesson plans case studies of students working with community groups lists of suitable writing examples how to sections examples and theoretical applications of creative writing pedagogy and techniques reflection questions writings by workshop participants Enhanced by contributions from directors students and teachers at successful public programs Creative Writing in the Community is more than an essential guide for students on creative writing courses and leaders of community based learning programs it is practical demonstration of the value of art in society How to Write Essays and Dissertations Alan
