

...coming from the beginning. The reason the Son of God appeared was to destroy the works of the devil. "No one born of God makes a practice of sinning, for God's seed abides in him, and he cannot offend who are the children of God, and who do not practice sinning. By this it is the devil: whoever does not practice righteousness. Whoever is born of God is the one who does not love his brother.

Love One Another

"For this is the message that you have heard from the Father: that we should love one another." We should not be afraid of the man who was of the evil one and murdered his brother. And yet you have hated him? Because his own deeds were evil and he was not righteous. "Do not be surprised, brothers, that the world hates you. We know that we have passed out of death into life because we love the brothers. Whoever does not love abides in death. Everyone who hates his brother is a murderer, and you know that no murderer has eternal life abiding in him.

"By this we know love: that he laid down his life for us, and we ought to lay down our lives for the brothers. But if anyone has the world's goods and sees his brother in need, yet closes his heart against him, how does God's love abide in him? Little children, let us not love in word or with the tongue only, but in deed and in truth."

"By this we shall know that we are of the truth and reassure our heart before him; for whenever our heart condemns us, God is greater than our heart, and he knows everything. Beloved, if our heart does not condemn us, we have confidence before God; and whatever we ask we receive from him, because we keep his commandments and do what pleases him. And this is his love: that we believe in the name of his Son Jesus Christ and keep his commandments, just as he has commanded us. Whoever keeps his commandments abides in God, and God is in him. And by this we know that he abides in us, by the Spirit whom he has given us."

Test the Spirits

4 Beloved, do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits to see whether they are from God, for many false prophets have gone out into the world. By this you know the Spirit of God: every spirit that confesses that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is from God.

Tapie, Daniel Wade McClain, 2015-11-01 Although scholars increasingly understand Scripture to contain political dimensions and implications the interpretation of Scripture is often marginalized in most scholarly discussions of political theology Reading Scripture as a Political Act takes a step toward remedying this situation by exploring some of the ways the church has read Scripture politically In particular this volume examines the political character of premodern and modern theologians readings of Scripture with attention to how their readings relate to or address political challenges in their particular social and historical settings The essays attempt to illuminate the ways that the theological interpretation of Scripture shaped the theopolitical imaginations of Augustine Basil of Caesarea Bonaventure Thomas Aquinas Bartolome de las Casas John Wesley Karl Barth Henri de Lubac and John Howard Yoder among others Several essays in the volume also take constructive steps and suggest how these models of reading Scripture can inform the contemporary task of reading Scripture in political contexts The volume covers the earliest Christian centuries to the late modern era and considers carefully the close coordination between Scripture theology and social and political concerns As a whole the collection provides a robust survey of Christian theopolitical interpretation of the Bible
