Farnham,A. Hondegheem,S. Horton,2005-06-07 This book explores the role of civil servants and their trade unions in the public management reform process framing it in its economic social cultural and legal contexts Building on neo institutional and stakeholder theories the book shows how staff and their representative organisations have influenced the formulation and implementation of public management reforms in twelve OECD countries This study challenges top down elite theories that have dominated the existing literature explaining how staff participation practices both direct and indirect have impacted on the implementation of reforms in different ways in different countries The book concludes that variations in staff participation in the reform process depend upon institutional and political factors and the distribution of power in the employment relationship Indian National Bibliography Bellary Shamanna Kesavan,1975 Social Foundations of Markets, Money and Credit Costas Lapavistas,2003-09-04 Where does the power of money come from Why is trust so important in financial operations How does the swapping of gifts differ from the exchange of commodities Where does self interest stop and communal solidarity start in capitalist economies These issues and many more are discussed in a rigorous yet readable manner in Social Foundations of Work Related Abstracts ,1989 Crisis and Restructuring in East Asia S. Jeong,2004-07-20 This book criticizes the widespread view that the 1997 Asian crisis was due to crony capitalism and puts the blame instead on misguided liberalization It analyzes the case of Korea s business conglomerates the chaebol with particular attention to the car industry to show how liberalization contributed to the crisis even at the level of the firm It shows how those firms that had developed innovative capabilities survived the crisis much better than those that had merely expanded into markets opened up by liberalization Ethnic Relations in Canada Raymond Breton,2005-10-13 The introduction by Jeffrey Reitz focuses on the evolution of Breton s distinctive institutional framework which both extends and in some ways alters John Porter s classic analysis in The Vertical Mosaic Reitz shows how Breton s original concept of institutional completeness has been extended to provide a comprehensive framework for the institutional analysis of inter ethnic relations creating a unified theoretical structure that has reshaped the study of inter ethnic relations in Canada and points toward a future research agenda Labour Laws and Global Trade B. A. Hepple,2005-03-25 This book provides a comprehensive analysis of the new methods of transnational labour regulation that are emerging in response to globalisation
