Manual De Istorie Clasa A 12 A:

Holocaust Public Memory in Postcommunist Romania Alexandru Florian, 2018-01-24 An excellent analysis of the slow but steady evolution of Romania from heavy Holocaust denial toward a fair confrontation of its tragic past Radu Ioanid author of The Holocaust in Romania How is the Holocaust remembered in Romania since the fall of communism Alexandru Florian and an international group of contributors unveil how and why Romania a place where large segments of the Jewish and Roma populations perished still fails to address its recent past These essays focus on the roles of government and public actors that choose to promote construct defend or contest the memory of the Holocaust as well as the tools the press the media monuments and commemorations that create public memory Coming from a variety of perspectives these essays provide a compelling view of what memories exist how they are sustained how they can be distorted and how public remembrance of the Holocaust can be encouraged in Romanian society today While positive changes have taken place a large gap exists between the historical facts and public knowledge about Romania and the Holocaust This volume offers a fresh and nuanced understanding of the contemporary battles of memory in postcommunist Eastern Europe Diana Dumitru author of The State Antisemitism and Collaboration in the Holocaust An excellent and timely addition to European historiography The book consists of eight chapters most of them written by scholars affiliated with the Elie Wiesel Institute It not only shows the challenges faced in remembering Romania's involvement in the Holocaust but provides an excellent comparative analysis with other countries in the region Reading Religion Holocaust Education E. Doyle Stevick, Deborah L.

Michaels, 2017-10-02 Holocaust Education Promise Practice Power and Potential provides timely studies of some of the most pressing issues in teaching and learning about the Holocaust around the world Europe is experiencing both anti Semitic attacks many by radicals claiming the banner of Islam and the resurgence of right wing movements that are openly hostile to minority rights particularly for marginalized and vulnerable groups like the Roma Sinti and Muslim refugees Can Holocaust education an encounter with the most extreme racial ideology to afflict the continent reduce violence and prejudice against Jewish and other minority groups The important studies in this volume address these and other pressing issues for the field including the progress of Central and Eastern European countries that experienced both Soviet hegemony and Nazi terror in grappling with the history of the Holocaust This book was originally published as a special issue of Intercultural Education

Cultural Transformations After Communism Barbara Törnquist-Plewa, Krzysztof Stala, 2011-01-08 Focusing on the profound transformation in Central and Eastern Europe since the fall of the Iron Curtain this record analyzes complex cultural dimensions such as lifestyles habits value markers and identity Written by a group of experts it presents case studies from the former communist countries that are members of the European Union today and attempts to answer crucial questions about the constructions of a new identity in the region Have the processes of democratization and opening the borders produced mentality changes and new value systems Is there a convergence of values and cultures between the new and old EU members Have there been backlashes in the processes of reconstructing national identities This book is a valuable resource for anyone interested in European integration issues of national identity and the politics and culture of the post Communist countries Myth, Identity, and Conflict Anamaria Dutceac Segesten, 2011-09-16 Myth Identity and Conflict A Comparative Analysis of Romanian and Serbian Textbooks by Anamaria Dutceac Segesten is an examination of how history and politics became entangled in Romania and Serbia In it Segesten asks questions like Is myth present in the history textbooks of Romania and Serbia If so are there differences in the ways these myths define the in group and the relationship with the Other between a country that experienced interethnic conflict Serbia and a country that did not Romania Do textbooks affect the odds that conflict will occur Segesten s findings confirm the presence of mythologized versions of the past in the history textbooks of both countries over the entire fifteen year period studied 1992 2007 despite claims for professionalization of textbook making Myths of noble origins of heroism and victimhood appear in both cases Segesten finds the language to be ideological and in favor of the ethnic majority even if over time there is a slow tendency towards moderation especially in Romania probably due to the influence of the European Union Ultimately Myth Identity and Conflict by Anamaria Dutceac Segesten questions the alleged power of history textbooks to make a difference in ethnically divided societies prone to conflicts Bringing the Dark Past to Light John-Paul Himka, Joanna Beata Michlic, 2013-07-01 Despite the Holocaust s profound impact on the history of Eastern Europe the communist regimes successfully repressed public discourse about and memory of this tragedy Since the collapse of communism in 1989 however this has changed Not only has a wealth of archival sources become available but there have also been oral history projects and interviews recording the testimonies of eyewitnesses who experienced the Holocaust as children and young adults Recent political social and cultural developments have facilitated a more nuanced and complex understanding of the continuities and discontinuities in representations of the Holocaust People are beginning to realize the significant role that memory of Holocaust plays in contemporary discussions of national identity in Eastern Europe This volume of original essays explores the memory of the Holocaust and the Jewish past in postcommunist Eastern Europe Devoting space to every postcommunist country the essays in Bringing the Dark Past to Light explore how the memory of the dark pasts of Eastern European nations is being recollected and reworked In addition it examines how this memory shapes the collective identities and the social identity of ethnic and national minorities Memory of the Holocaust has practical implications regarding the current development of national cultures and international relationships Clio in the Balkans Christina Koulouri, 2002

Post/Modern Dracula John S. Bak, 2007-06 Post modern Dracula explores the postmodern in Bram Stoker s Victorian novel and the Victorian in Francis Ford Coppola s postmodern film to demonstrate how the century that separates the two artists binds them more than it divides them What are Transitional Justice in Post-Communist Romania Lavinia Stan, 2013 This is the first volume to overview the complex Romanian transitional justice effort detail the political negotiations that have led to the adoption and implementation of relevant legislation and assess these processes in terms of their timing sequencing and impact on democratization

Solutions for Business, Culture and Religion in Eastern Europe and Beyond
Sebastian Văduva, Ioan Ș. Fotea, Andrew R. Thomas, 2017-10-26 This book explores the increased necessity of organizations to encourage human talent in the globalized economy with particular emphasis on the impact in Eastern Europe Featuring contributions presented at the 7th Annual Griffiths School of Management International Conference on Business and Ethics GSMAC organized by Emanuel University of Oradea this book presents in depth analysis of the economic social and religious implications of the transition from low cost of labor to increased human talent in Eastern Europe and offers multiple theoretical and practical solutions In 2004 Klaus Schwab president and founder of the World Economic Forum stated that the old era of capitalism and socialism is being replaced by a new era of talentism The true competitive advantage of organizations and nations is increasingly becoming human talent defined as the ability to have new ideas that have value Nations and organizations are exploring ways to reform their education systems and organizational structures in order to train foster and encourage human talent In Eastern Europe since the fall of communism in 1989 the competitive advantage of the region has been low cost of labor However since the integration within the European Union millions of Eastern Europeans have left their home countries rendering the low wage competitive advantage almost obsolete In addition the migration of able working individuals has left behind mainly children and pensioners placing a disproportionately heavy burden upon public and government services It is within this context that the contents of this book explore the impact of the increased need of high human talent on Eastern European countries Featuring contributions around topics such as poverty healthcare management cross border cooperation education systems and religious influence on economic development this book will be of interest of scholars researchers students and policy makers interested in the business development and economic growth of Eastern Europe
