Islam and the West Sadia Zulfiqar, 2015-06-18 Islam like the West is not a homogenous monolith However Islam is most commonly represented in the West in terms of suicide bombing suppressed and veiled women and internal and external conflict These depictions of Islam suggest that the relationship between Islam and the West is and has always been one of hostility and hatred However this collection locates threads of connection and love between Islam and the West and argues that it is important to bring them to the forefront i

My Name Is Salma, 2008 When Salma becomes pregnant before marriage in her small village in the Levant her innocent days playing the pipe for her goats are gone for ever She is swept into prison for her own protection To the sound of her screams her newborn baby daughter is snatched away In the middle of the most English of towns Exeter she learns good manners from her landlady and settles down with an Englishman But deep in her heart the cries of her baby daughter still echo When she can bear them no longer she goes back to her village to find her It is a journey that will change everything and nothing Slipping back and forth between the olive groves of the Levant and the rain slicked pavements of Exeter My Name is Salma is a searing portrayal of a woman s courage in the face of insurmountable odds Adventuring in the Englishes Ikram Ahmed Ibrahim Elsherif, Piers Michael Smith, 2014-10-16 This book is a compilation of articles dealing with linguistic and literary concerns relating to the global production and consumption of literature in English and global instruction and education in the English language The umbrella theme of the book is English Language and Literature in a Globalized World or The Global Appropriation and hybridization of English The contributing authors are international scholars and creative writers from different parts of the world who offer unique perspectives on the ways in which the English language and English literature are constantly developing and changing in a postcolonial global world They are mostly professors of English who have cross cultural teaching experiences and who live or have lived and worked in both Anglophone and non Anglophone countries To many of them English is their dominant language but not the mother tongue All of them are bilingual or even trilingual Thus their scholarly investigations are flavoured with their personal experiences or adventures with the language and its users Their unique visions reveal a process of adoption adaptation reinvention and appropriation of both the language and its literature in a multi national multi cultural and multi lingual community of a world where English has become the most recognizable sign of globalization This book will appeal to all scholars and practitioners of English language and literature particularly those interested in colonial and postcolonial studies modern and post modern studies ethnic and minority studies feminist studies cross cultural studies linguistics semantics ESP and curriculum development Islamic Postcolonialism Hasan Majed, 2015-09-18 Islamic postcolonialism is a theoretical perspective that combines two components which have up until now existed in a state of tension As a secular theory postcolonialism has notably failed to account for Muslim priorities it has for instance had severe problems critiquing the anti Islam polemics of The Satanic Verses as is evidenced by Edward Said s support for Rushdie in spite of his criticism of the stereotypical representation of Islam and Muslims in the West Islamic postcolonialism applies the anti colonial resistant methodology of postcolonialism from a Muslim perspective exploring the continuance of colonial discourse in part of the contemporary western writing about Islam and Muslims This book explores how Islam is depicted and Muslim identities are constructed in four representative works of contemporary British fiction Hanif Kureishi s The Black Album 1995 Monica Ali s Brick Lane 2003 Fadia Faqir s My Name is Salma 2007 and Leila Aboulela s Minaret 2005 Salman Rushdie s The Satanic Verses 1988 is also discussed in terms of its crucial role in fostering what some Muslims might consider polemical and stereotypical positions in writing about Islam From Compositors to Collectors John Hinks, Matthew Day, 2012 The essays in this collection trace texts from their creation and printing through to their publication dissemination and collection In doing so they show how production processes change texts and how collectors subsequently appropriate them for their own ends By examining the diverse activities of those involved in both textual creation and collection over a long period these essays highlight both continuities and changes in the book trade Taken together this collection offers considerable new insights into many facets of the book trade ranging from creation to consumption This newest addition to the Print Networks series includes nineteen essays from leading book history scholars including Mariko Nagase Daniel Cook Stephen Brown Brian Hillyard Catherine Delafield Rob Allen Rachel Bower Iain Beavan and more The compositors section covers everything from The Mayor of Quinborough published in 1661 to My Name is Salma published in 2007 Essays on collectors include Dr James Fraser Titus Wheatcroft Sir Walter Scott the USA Armed Services and more The book is illustrated throughout in black and white Available in the UK from The British Library British Muslim Fictions C.
