Authorizing Experience James Egan, 1999-04-05 The emphasis on practical experience over ideology is viewed by many historians as a profoundly American characteristic one that provides a model for exploring the colonial challenge to European belief systems and the creation of a unique culture Here Jim Egan offers an unprecedented look at how early modern American writers helped make this notion of experience so powerful that we now take it as a given rather than as the product of hard fought rhetorical battles waged over ways of imagining one's relationship to a larger social community In order to show how our modern notion of experience emerges from a historical change that experience itself could not have brought about he turns to works by seventeenth century writers in New England and reveals the ways in which they authorized experience ultimately producing a rhetoric distinctive to the colonies and supportive of colonialism Writers such as John Smith William Wood John Winthrop Anne Bradstreet Benjamin Thompson and William Hubbard were sensitive to the challenge experiential authority posed to established social hierarchies Egan argues that they used experience to authorize a supplementary status system that would at once enhance England's economic political and spiritual status and provide a new basis for regulating English and native populations These writers were assuaging fears over how exposure to alien environments threatened actual English bodies and also the imaginary body that authorized English monarchy and allowed English subjects to think of themselves as a nation By reimagining the English nation these supporters of English colonialism helped create a modern way of imagining national identity and individual subject formation A new Life of Jesus.

Authorized Faith Tameka Vazquez, 2020-07-08 Have you ever felt defeated in the battle as if you do not have the tools to fight Or maybe you have been in a situation where you feel trapped with no way out Or at times you feel as though your current circumstances are larger than you and you are at the point of drowning This book informs you that God has given you the Authority to walk in Faith You have the ability to believe God to trust him and to stand firm in faith regardless of how your situation looks For when you have done all to stand continue Standing You can choose to disperse the lies of the enemy and rely on God to work Miracles in your life and see his glory revealed When living for God we must fight the good fight of faith For the weapons of warfare are not carnal but they are Mighty through God to the pulling down of strongholds Therefore we fight in prayer we fight when fasting we fight when offering praises to God we fight when reading and studying the word of God and allowing our minds to be renewed This journey with God is a continuous fight of faith For Faith cometh by hearing and hearing by the Word of God Therefore we must hear the Word of God constantly for our faith to grow and develop We need to listen to it read it meditate on it and apply it to our lives As we do this we will grow in God and be able to endure our everyday challenges For we live from Faith to Faith
