Allowed to Grow Old Isa Leshko, 2019-05-10 There's nothing quite like a relationship with an aged pet a dog or cat who has been at our side for years forming an ineffable bond Pampered pets however are a rarity among animals who have been domesticated Farm animals for example are usually slaughtered before their first birthday We never stop to think about it but the typical images we see of cows chickens pigs and the like are of young animals What would we see if they were allowed to grow old Isa Leshko shows us brilliantly with this collection of portraits To create these portraits she spent hours with her subjects gaining their trust and putting them at ease The resulting images reveal the unique personality of each animal It's impossible to look away from the animals in these images as they unforgettably meet our gaze simultaneously calm and challenging In these photographs we see the cumulative effects of the hardships of industrialized farm life but also the healing that time can bring and the dignity that can emerge when farm animals are allowed to age on their own terms Each portrait is accompanied by a brief biographical note about its subject and the book is rounded out with essays that explore the history of animal photography the place of beauty in activist art and much more Open this book to any page Meet Teresa a thirteen year old Yorkshire Pig or Melvin an eleven year old Angora Goat or Tom a seven year old Broad Breasted White Turkey You ll never forget them

Life, Language, and Poetry Richard W. Leland,2024-02-09 About the Book Donald Hall remains one of the most published writers of his time Named Poet Laureate by President George W Bush Hall continued to publish both poetry and prose up to the time of his death in 2018 While his last writing focused mainly on prose Hall will likely be remembered for his undeniable contribution to many different styles and genres of writing He was well known to many if not most of the published poets of his age It remains somewhat of a mystery however that so renowned and published a writer would perpetuate a correspondence of nearly eleven years with someone he never met and could know nothing about It never occurred to me that Donald Hall would respond to my initial letter to him My initial letter to him was chiefly to tell him how much I had admired his poetry how often I had used his poetry in my teaching what some of the issues his most recent poetry raised for me all while wishing him well in his future endeavors I did not expect any response to what I understood to be a stand alone letter and could not have imagined then that a correspondence so innocently and routinely begun would continue for eleven years All of the letters I wrote to Hall in those eleven years are included in this collection Most of my professional life has been in academia I received a PhD Degree from the University of Minnesota in 1975 the same year I began my tenured teaching at East Stroudsburg University in eastern Pennsylvania Throughout my adult life I have always been a writer though not one who ever prioritized publishing I ve written poetry short stories essays and full length plays However my search was always for ever greater authenticity in my own writing and ever greater satisfaction in the authenticity other writers were able to achieve Very few who know me know anything of my life as a writer I am not sure looking back why I persisted and continue to persist in writing but I do know that writing has been a meaningful act in guiding the integrity of my own life When I am alone and at my desk I confront myself I seek an honesty of thought and emotion difficult to find elsewhere But what I have discovered is that in attempting to come ever closer to my own individuality of thought and emotion I paradoxically come closer to thoughts and emotions shared by many That being the case there may be a wider interest in how those thoughts and emotions evolved over the eleven years of a correspondence focused primarily on writing and its inter connection with the challenges of ordinary living You will need to be the judge of that Stephen King, American Master Stephen Spignesi, 2018-10-30 Fascinating facts trivia and little known details about the Master of the Macabre s life from the world s leading authority on Stephen King Entertainment Weekly New York Times bestselling author Stephen Spignesi has compiled interviews essays and loads of facts and details about all of Stephen King s work into this fun and informative compendium for the author s many fans from the casual to the fanatical Did you know In his early teens Stephen King sold typed copies of his short stories at school King originally thought his novel Pet Sematary was too frightening to publish King s legendary Dark Tower series took him more than 30 years to write Thinner was the novel that revealed his Richard Bachman pseudonym to the world King wrote The Eyes of the Dragon for his daughter Naomi He has never liked Stanley Kubrick s film version of his novel The Shining It took him four years to write what some consider his magnum opus IT The 2017 film version of IT has grossed more than 700 million worldwide In addition to novels King has written essays plays screenplays and even poetry Gray Matters Ellyn Lem, 2020-08-28 Gray Matters Finding Meaning in the Stories of Later Life examines films literature and art that focus on aging often made by people who are over sixty five These texts are analyzed alongside recent gerontology research and extensive commentary from interviews and surveys of seniors to show how stories illuminate the dynamics of growing old by blending fact with imagination giving a fuller picture of the aging process Psychoanalytic Approaches to Problems in Living Sandra Buechler, 2019-02-25 Psychoanalytic Approaches to Problems in Living examines how psychoanalysts can draw on their training reading and clinical experience to help their patients address some of the recurrent challenges of everyday life Sandra Buechler offers clinicians poetic psychoanalytic and experiential approaches to problems drawing on her personal and clinical experience as well as ideas from her reading to confront challenges familiar to us all Buechler addresses issues including difficulties of mourning aging living with uncertainty finding meaningful work transcending pride bearing helplessness and forgiving life's hardships For those contemplating a clinical career and those in its beginning stages she suggests ways to prepare to face these quandaries in treatment sessions More experienced practitioners will find echoes of themes that have run through their own clinical and personal life experiences The chapters demonstrate that insights from a poem can often guide the clinician as well as concepts garnered from psychoanalytic theory and other sources Buechler puts her questions to T S Eliot Rainer Maria Rilke Elizabeth Bishop W S Merwin Stanley Kunitz and many other poets and fiction writers She asks Sharon Olds how to meet emergencies Erich Fromm how to live vigorously and Edith Wharton how to age gracefully and brings their insights to bear as she addresses challenges that make frequent appearances in clinical sessions and other walks of life With a final section designed to improve training in the light of her practical findings Psychoanalytic Approaches to Problems in Living is an essential book for all practicing psychoanalysts and psychoanalytic psychotherapists

Albert Camus's "The New Mediterranean Culture" Neil Foxlee, 2010. This book was shortlisted for the R H Gapper prize 2011. On 8 February 1937 the 23 year old Albert Camus gave an inaugural lecture for a new Maison de la culture or community arts centre in Algiers. Entitled La nouvelle culture méditerranéenne The New Mediterranean Culture Camus's lecture has been interpreted in radically different ways while some critics have dismissed it as an incoherent piece of juvenilia others see it as key to understanding his future development as a thinker whether as the first expression of his so-called Mediterranean humanism or as an early indication of what is seen as his essentially colonial mentality. These various interpretations are based on reading the text of The New Mediterranean Culture in a single context whether that of Camus's life and work as a whole of French discourses on the Mediterranean or of colonial Algeria and French discourses on that country. By contrast this study argues that Camus's lecture and in principle any historical text needs to be seen in a multiplicity of contexts discursive and otherwise if readers are to understand properly what its author was doing in writing it. Using Camus's lecture as a case study the book provides a detailed theoretical and practical justification of this multi-contextualist approach.
