

It should be noted that if you are taking the exam on April 22nd and 23rd (a Day 1 exam) and 27th and 28th (a Day 2 exam).

This is an oral exam. You are receiving this information so you may prepare accordingly. Please read all the instructions and discuss them with your tutor afterwards. Don't forget to bring your identification (passport or card) as a reference.

Procedure: We have both written questions at your own discretion. The questions are for Day 1 and Day 2. Don't use any materials other than the ones provided. However, you are required to write and show some of them as a part of the exam. Please use the time you are given to write and show as many as you can and to the best of your ability. Please remember to explain the significance and content of your writing.

Example:

Remember to bring your identification card. There will be a card on the front of the exam paper. You must show it to your tutor at the start of the exam.

On Day 1, you will be asked to write a short answer to the question: "What is the significance of the text?"

1. In the beginning of the text, the author writes that the story is about the life of a woman. What is the significance of this statement? How does the author use this statement to develop the story? (You must show the significance of this statement in your writing.)
2. Does the author use the story to show the life of the woman? (You must show the significance of this statement in your writing.)
3. The author says: "The woman is a very beautiful woman." (You must show the significance of this statement in your writing.)
4. "The author says that the woman is a very beautiful woman." (You must show the significance of this statement in your writing.)
5. The author says that the woman is a very beautiful woman. (You must show the significance of this statement in your writing.)
6. The author says that the woman is a very beautiful woman. (You must show the significance of this statement in your writing.)
7. The author says that the woman is a very beautiful woman. (You must show the significance of this statement in your writing.)
