Autocar , 2001-02 The Director , 1999 Austerity as Public Mood Kirsten Forkert, 2017-09-20 Austerity as Public Mood explores how politicians and the media mobilise nostalgic and socially conservative ideas of work and community in order to justify cuts to public services and create divisions between the deserving and undeserving It examines the powerful appeal of these concepts as part of a wider public mood marked by guilt nostalgia and resentment particularly around the inequalities produced by global capitalism and changes to the nature of work In doing so the book engages with urgent questions about the contemporary political climate Focusing on the UK it challenges accounts of neoliberalism which frame it as primarily an individualising force and localist definitions of community as mitigating its damaging effects Finally it explores how resistance to austerity can challenge these tendencies by offering a politics of solidarity and hope and a forum for experimentation with alternative forms of collectivity

Daily Graphic Yaw Boadu-Ayeboafah, 2006-10-24 Shared Meanings in the Film Music of Philip Glass Tristian Evans, 2016-03-03 The study of music within multimedia contexts has become an increasingly active area of scholarly research. However, the application of such studies to musical genres outside the classical film canon or in television and other media remains largely unexplored in any detail. Tristian Evans demonstrates how postminimal music interacts with other media forms, focusing on the film music by Philip Glass but also taking into account works by other composers such as Steve Reich, Terry Riley, John Adams, and others inspired by minimalist and postminimal practices. Additionally, Evans develops innovative ways of analysing this music based on an interdisciplinary approach and draws on research from areas that include philosophy, linguistics, and film theory. The book offers one of the first in-depth studies of Philip Glass's music for film, considering The Hours and Dracula. Naqoyqatsi, Notes on a Scandal, and Watchmen while examining re-applications of the music in new cinematic and televisual contexts. The book will appeal to musicologists but also to those working in the fields of film music, cultural studies, media studies, and multimedia.

The Automotive Industry and European Integration A. J. Jacobs, 2019-08-07. This book chronicles the divergent growth trends in car production in Belgium and Spain. It delves into how European integration, high wages, and the demise of GM and Ford led to plant closings in Belgium. Next, it investigates how lower wages and the expansion strategies of Western European automakers stimulated expansion in the Spanish auto industry. Finally, it offers three alternate scenarios regarding how further EU expansion and Brexit may potentially reshape the geographic footprint of European car production over the next ten years. In sum, this book utilizes history to help expand the knowledge of scholars and policymakers regarding how European integration and Brexit may impact future auto industry investment for all EU nations. Automotive News, 2008.
