resource for both ministers and caregivers Though systematic the book is filled with examples from Blair s 40 plus years in the ministry which makes the book dynamic credible and filled with wisdom Underlying this work is Blair s humble but all encompassing devotion to Christ An essential resource for all involved in funerals and weddings this book is one of a kind Mike Inman Chaplain Hospice of Siouxland Sioux City Iowa I have found Robert Blair s The Funeral And Wedding Handbook to be very helpful It is well written informative practical and contemporary for today s minister It is a great resource book both for students preparing for ministry and those who have for many years served the Lord s people during these very important stages in life Having this book is like having a good friend who s always ready to answer the how to and what to questions that come up in these situations I highly recommend it to all ministers Ron Bontrager Instructor Sunset International Bible Institute Lubbock Texas For 28 years Robert Blair pastored the Church of Christ in Hollywood California A graduate of Pepperdine University B A M A Blair now resides in Cleghorn Iowa His writings have appeared in Leadership and Leadership Handbooks of Practical Theology The Minister's Manual for Funerals Al, Jr. Cadenhead,1987-12-07 The plans for this book began several years ago as I personally sought quality resources for my work with grieving families With such an abundance of homelectical materials in general I was concerned that there seemed to be very little to offer guidance for the funeral setting The goal of this book is to provide resource material for a setting that has so much potential for ministry From the Preface Shepherding God's People Siang-Yang Tan,2019-07-16 This comprehensive textbook on pastoral ministry for pastors church leaders and students articulates a biblical model for shepherding God s people Written by a leading psychologist and seminary professor who has served as a pastor for more than two decades the book covers twelve major areas of pastoral ministry highlights the essential work of the Holy Spirit and focuses on the personal and family life of the pastor It includes cross cultural perspectives of special interest in our diverse world and a foreword by John Ortberg Finding Your Own Way to Grieve Karla Helbert,2012-10-01 Children and teenagers with autism can struggle to cope with the loss of a loved one and the complicated and painful emotions of bereavement This book explains death in concrete terms explores feelings that the child may encounter as a part of bereavement and offers creative and expressive activities that facilitate healing The Deritualization of Death Charles Lynn Gibson,2019-10-15 The problematic field of investigation for this study was for the care of bereaved human beings in the context of significant cultural shifts now shaping the twenty first century Deritualization was identified as a significant interdisciplinary concern that contributes to potential distress in processes of grieving The objective of the research was the development of a practical theology of compassionate caregiving for the bereaved with deference to the problem of deritualization The theoretical framework was guided by the Oxford Interdisciplinary Research model and the Loyola Institute of Ministries model of practical theology The study was designed for applied research for funeral directors and vocational pastors utilizing qualitative research methods Hermeneutical and empirical components addressed six research questions through two domains of inquiry disciplinary perspectives and educational dynamics of bereavement caregiving Using the method of hermeneutics to critically evaluate the first two research questions three disciplinary fields of knowledge were examined and integrated from the perspective of pastoral care funeral service bereavement psychology and practical theology Each discipline individually converged upon meaningful caregiving meaning reconstruction and meaning reframing as significant modes of bereavement care Using ethnographic semi structured interviews to critically evaluate the remaining four research questions data were collected from a Christian university and a mortuary college The interview questionnaire included twenty five main questions organized in four parts Philosophy of Education Hermeneutics of Bereaved Families Care of Bereaved Families and Encounter of Bereaved Families The study utilized two cycles of qualitative coding techniques to report the findings of each participating school A hybrid form of in vivo and holistic coding as well as a second cycle of pattern coding distilled the interview responses into actionable statements that reinforced bereavement caregiving By synthesizing all of the findings a compelling case was made for a paradigm of comforting presence supported by principles from a Louwian perspective of practical theology including theological anthropology promissiotherapy bipolarity and hermeneutics The study connected a philosophy of meaning reframing and a paradigm of comforting presence to a meta theoretical framework within a narrative approach to care The research elucidated an interdisciplinary understanding that contributed toward a compassionate practical theology of caregiving for the bereaved

Death, Dying, and Bereavement in a Changing World Alan Kemp, 2018-11-02 In this introductory text on thanatology Alan Kemp continues to take on the central question of mortality the centrality of death coupled with the denial of death in the human experience Drawing from the work of Ernest Becker Death Dying and Bereavement in a Changing World provides a multidisciplinary and multidimensional approach to the study of death putting extra emphasis on the how death takes place in a rapidly changing world This new second edition includes the most up to date research data and figures related to death and dying New research on the alternative death movement natural disaster related deaths and cannabis as a form of treatment for life threatening illnesses and updated research on physician assisted suicide as well as on grief as it relates to the DSM 5 have been added
