Prison Journal George Pell, 2021-11-02 Innocent That final verdict came after George Cardinal Pell endured a gruelling four years of accusations investigations trials public humiliations and more than a year of imprisonment after being convicted by an Australian court of a crime he did not commit Led off to jail in handcuffs following his sentencing on March 13 2019 the 78 year old Australian prelate began what was meant to be six years in jail for historical sexual assault offenses Cardinal Pell endured more than thirteen months in solitary confinement before the Australian High Court voted 7 0 to overturn his original convictions His victory over injustice was not just personal but one for the entire Catholic Church Bearing no ill will toward his accusers judges prison workers journalists and those harbouring and expressing hatred for him the cardinal used his time in prison as a kind of extended retreat He eloquently filled notebook pages with his spiritual insights prison experiences and personal reflections on current events both inside and outside the Church as well as moving prayers In this third and final volume Cardinal Pell's conviction is overturned by Australia's High Court and he is released from prison As his appeal draws near he grows in confidence that his case is strong and that his vindication is important not only for his own sake and the Church's sake but also for the sake of Australia's legal system While continuing his daily readings and devotions and receiving hundreds of letters with offers of prayers and sacrifices on his behalf the cardinal ponders the meaning of suffering in the life of the Christian and he determines to accept with equanimity whatever outcome lies ahead
