

9/10/13: Nothing Ever Happens on 90th Street

I think that Eva didn't realize how exciting her street was until she wrote the story. I think this because there were so many different things happening on 90th street, but she never took the time to realize it. For example, a simple event like the pizza delivery man falling down and being helped up by Alexis Leora turned into so much more. Alexis and the pizza delivery man fell in love because of this small encounter. I wonder if this will now be an "eye-opening" experience for her and she'll stop taking these everyday people and events for granted.

This reminds me of a time where I went away to college. I always thought the town that I grew up in was boring, but then when I came home for the first time, I looked around at all of the "little things." I never realized it at the time, but my town was not boring at all, it was, in fact, a very exciting and interesting place.

Intermediate-Level Accountant Interview Questions and Answers - English Navneet Singh, Here are some common intermediate level accountant interview questions along with suggested answers

Technical Questions What accounting software are you proficient in Answer I am proficient in several accounting software programs including QuickBooks SAP and Microsoft Dynamics I have used QuickBooks for day to day accounting tasks and SAP for more complex financial reporting and analysis Can you explain the difference between accounts payable and accounts receivable Answer Accounts payable refers to the money a company owes to its suppliers or vendors for goods or services purchased on credit Accounts receivable on the other hand represents the money that is owed to the company by its customers for goods or services sold on credit How do you ensure accuracy in your work Answer I ensure accuracy by maintaining meticulous records double checking my entries and performing regular reconciliations I also utilize accounting software to minimize errors and employ internal controls to ensure compliance with accounting standards Can you describe a time when you had to prepare a complex financial report Answer In my previous role I was responsible for preparing the annual budget report This involved consolidating data from various departments analysing trends and ensuring all figures were accurate I used advanced Excel functions to streamline the process and presented the final report to senior management which was well received What are deferred revenues and how are they accounted for Answer Deferred revenues refer to advance payments a company receives for products or services that are to be delivered in the future These payments are recorded as liabilities on the balance sheet until the products or services are delivered at which point the revenue is recognized Behavioural Questions Tell me about a time when you identified an error in a financial statement How did you handle it Answer In a previous position I discovered a discrepancy in the monthly financial statement that stemmed from a data entry error I immediately investigated the source of the error corrected it and then implemented additional checks to prevent similar mistakes in the future I also communicated the error and the corrective actions taken to my supervisor How do you prioritize your tasks when you have multiple deadlines to meet Answer I prioritize my tasks based on their deadlines and importance I use task management software to organize my workload and break down larger projects into smaller manageable tasks I also communicate with my team to ensure we are aligned on priorities and deadlines allowing me to manage my time effectively Describe a time when you had to explain a complex accounting concept to someone without an accounting background Answer I had to explain the concept of accrual accounting to a colleague in the marketing department I used simple analogies and real life examples to illustrate how revenues and expenses are recognized in the period they occur regardless of when cash transactions happen This helped my colleague understand the impact of certain marketing expenses on the financial statements Situational Questions How would you handle a situation where you disagree with a colleague about a financial reporting method Answer I would first seek to understand my colleague s perspective and the rationale behind their approach Then I would present my own perspective backed by accounting principles and guidelines If we still couldn t reach an agreement I would suggest consulting with a senior accountant or referring to the relevant accounting standards to resolve the disagreement What steps would you take if you suspected fraudulent activity in the accounting records Answer If I suspected fraudulent activity I would first document my findings and gather any evidence that supports my suspicion I would then report the issue to my supervisor or the appropriate department such as internal audit or compliance following the company's protocols. It's important to handle such situations discreetly and professionally to ensure a thorough investigation. Scenario Based Questions: Imagine you have just started working here and discovered the previous accountant made a mistake in the financial statements. How would you address this? Answer: I would review the financial statements to understand the nature and extent of the mistake. After confirming the error, I would correct the financial statements and document the adjustments made. I would also notify my supervisor and provide a detailed explanation of the error and the corrective actions taken. Additionally, I would review the processes that led to the mistake to prevent it from happening again. You need to prepare for an audit but you find that some documentation is missing. How do you proceed? Answer: I would start by identifying which documents are missing and then try to locate them by checking with relevant departments or individuals. If the documents cannot be found, I would document the absence and communicate the issue to my supervisor. I would also work on recreating the missing documentation using available data and ensure that all other documentation is thoroughly organized and accurate for the audit. Preparing for these questions can help you showcase your technical knowledge, problem-solving abilities, and communication skills, which are crucial for an intermediate-level accountant role.

Preparation of Trial Balance and Rectification of Errors - English Navneet Singh, A trial balance is a financial statement that lists all the general ledger accounts of a company along with their respective debit or credit balances It serves as a preliminary step in the accounting process to ensure that the total debits equal the total credits in the company's records thereby verifying the accuracy of the accounting entries Here's an overview of how a trial balance is prepared

Collect General Ledger Balances Gather the balances of all general ledger accounts from the company's accounting records These balances include both debit and credit balances List Accounts in Trial Balance Prepare a list of all general ledger accounts arranged in a systematic order such as by account number or account type Each account is listed along with its respective debit or credit balance Calculate Total Debits and Credits Calculate the total debits and total credits by summing up the balances of all accounts in the trial balance The total debits should equal the total credits if the accounting entries have been recorded accurately Verify Equality of Debits and Credits Compare the total debits with the total credits to ensure that they are equal If the totals match it indicates that the accounting entries are balanced and that the trial balance is in equilibrium Investigate Discrepancies If the total debits do not equal the total credits investigate any discrepancies or errors that may have occurred in recording the accounting transactions Common errors include posting mistakes incorrect account classifications or omitted entries Adjust Accounts Make any necessary adjustments to correct errors or reconcile discrepancies in the trial balance This may involve reclassifying accounts posting adjusting entries or correcting data entry errors Recheck Trial Balance After adjusting recheck the trial balance to ensure that the total debits now equal the total credits Continue to investigate and adjust until the trial balance balances Finalize Trial Balance Once the trial balance balances finalize the document by adding a heading and date Retain the trial balance for reference and use in preparing other financial statements such as the income statement and balance sheet The trial balance provides a snapshot of the company's financial position at a specific point in time and serves as an essential tool for verifying the accuracy of accounting records before preparing financial statements
