The Journey of My Life Peter Thwallies, 2017-02-21 The Journey of My Life is a story about ancestral spirits how they can drive you your life and your path to your future A lot of people say that ancestral spirits are not real but in Africa if you don't follow what your forebears tell you you might ruin your life

In Pursuit for Freedom Levee Kadenge, 2018-08-22 In Pursuit for Freedom speaks for itself Being born in rural Zimbabwe and going to school there has given me enough stamina to write a book about my life I have always wanted to be myself It was when I was growing up that I realized that one can expand his area of influence Joining Christian ministry and then faced with stationing in remote Zimbabwe was challenging This was the beginning of long journey which ended in United Kingdom The liberation that came as a result of being exposed helped me love my country Coming back home to a situation where there was oppression even under black rule was very suffocating I then pursued a life that was looking at the suffering masses of Zimbabwe Being a Methodist one is liberated to develop yourself In spite of the powerful regime that intimidated me I resolved to speak on behalf of the people

No Last Place to Rest Dineo Skosana, 2025-02 Examines the impact of coal mining on the lives of rural communities in post apartheid South Africa No Last Place to Rest Coal Mining and Dispossession in South Africa is an exploration of the ongoing struggles faced by families in the Mpumalanga and KwaZulu Natal provinces of South Africa whose lives have been upended by the relentless expansion of coal mining operations These regions burdened with the task of fulfilling the nation's energy needs and boosting the country's economy witness daily the harsh realities of dispossession that extend far beyond the mere loss of property Dineo Skosana presents a compelling argument that dispossession remains a present day reality and crisis contradicting the notion that it is merely a relic of the past in the post apartheid landscape It challenges the narrow perspective that equates land loss in material and economic terms only Skosana considers the impact of grave relocations a common occurrence in these mining dominated locales and the profound spiritual anguish and dehumanisation communities endure as their lands are excavated In African societies connections to the land extend beyond the material land has a sacred and ancestral value Grave relocations disrupt this connection families have with their ancestors In dispossessing not only the living but also the dead from their lands the author argues that the act wounds the collective soul of a people eroding their cultural heritage and collective identity and belonging This book offers a rich ethnographic account of the experiences struggles and resistance of the affected communities as well as a critical analysis of the legal and policy frameworks that enable their exploitation In relation to the land question in South Africa No Last Place to Rest presents deep insights for communities activists and government sectors acting in support of social justice and redress

Restoring the Broken Altars Paul M. Mahlobogwane, 2012-05-11 My career, 1996 ICSA Bulletin, 1982 Unisa Latin American Report, 2006 Like Water is for Fish Garth Japhet, 2021-01-18 The Soul City and Soul Buddyz series are memorable for the way in which they integrated health topics into compelling storylines on TV radio and in print creating stories so popular that they entertained and informed millions of people And the Heartlines What s Your Story programme and films such as Beyond the River continue to provide witness to the transformative power of story As a young boy Garth Japhet found his life radically shaped by the Jungle Doctor series of books The stories so enthralled him that against all advice he set his heart on medicine He could see his future with a backdrop of savannas golden sunsets adventure and accolades as a romantic figure a healer a hero This fantasy sustained Garth through the challenges of medical training but finally he arrived He was Dr Japhet living the dream Except the dream was a nightmare The reality of medicine was not the life he had hoped for There were times when he cursed the power of the story that had so completely messed up his life Having struggled with anxiety most of his life he was catapulted into a deep depression And then it happened Garth stumbled upon the healing power of story fictional factual and his own What magic was at work here If stories had changed him could he use story to change others This question set him on the journey described in Like Water is for Fish a journey that led to Garth co founding Soul City and Heartlines and to an understanding that story in its multiple forms is as essential for our lives as water is for fish When you share your story with others and they share theirs with you barriers break down hardened attitudes shift and healing begins

A Man without Ambition (eBook) Arnold Mol,2012-11-20 A MAN WITHOUT AMBITION is Dr Arnold Mol s autobiography written with the purpose of giving his grandchildren some insight into part of their historical heritage Even though his family and friends were surprised by the title Dr Mol says that his life has been characterized by responding to opportunities that have come his way rather than purposefully planning to achieve something A MAN WITHOUT AMBITION begins with Dr Mol recounting the drama surrounding his birth in Holland shortly before the end of the Second World War He then reflects on the past 68 blessed years of his life about immigrating to South Africa growing up the love of his life his first job his missionary calling to South America becoming a parent and his deep gratitude towards the Lord A MAN WITHOUT AMBITION makes for rather entertaining reading with many anecdotes and readers will see how blessed life can be when they trust God and put their faith in Him alone South Africa's Constitution at Twenty-one Jean Meiring,2017-10-01 in the new South Africa there is nobody not even the president who is above the law that the rule of law generally and in particular the independence of the judiciary should be respected Nelson Mandela In late 1996 South Africa s Constitution acquired the force of law Its Bill of Rights enshrined a range of fundamental rights to which all South Africans are entitled In a marked breach with the past citizens rights would no longer depend upon the pigment of their skin or other idiosyncratic features Today 21 years since its inception the Constitution has acquired an almost mythical status both at home and abroad Yet crucially its primary impact has been on the nuts and bolts of people s lives It means that the death penalty is no longer a sentencing option and gays and lesbians can get married and adopt It affects directly the types of contracts and commercial arrangements the courts will countenance and on people s rights to land As such it impacts on each and every South African s daily life and shapes the country and society we live in This collection of essays explores what the Constitution means for

South Africans and for the world both through its definition of legal rights and through the seepage into the real world of those rights and the culture that has arisen around them The contributors range from former Constitutional Court judges to activists writers and philosophers who look soberly at what has been achieved and what still needs to be done
