The Right to Vote

Prior to 1920, it was illegal for women to vote. Susan B. Anthony helped women get the right to vote. Susan B. Anthony was committed to get equal rights for women. At first, along with Elizabeth Cady Stanton, Susan B. Anthony spoke at conventions and wrote articles in the paper called "The Revolution". She felt like she needed to do more. In 1872, she cast a vote. This was illegal at the time, and she received a fine of $100. That may not seem like a lot, but today that $100 would be equal to almost $2000. It was a high price to pay, but Susan B. Anthony was determined to get this fundamental right for all women. Susan B. Anthony devoted her life to getting equal rights for women. Unfortunately, she didn't live to see women earn the right to vote. In 1920, the nineteenth amendment, gave every American the right to vote despite their gender. Susan B. Anthony died March 13, 1906.
