My Name is Parvana Deborah Ellis, 2015 Parvana's Journey Deborah Ellis, 2004-03-04 An Afghan girl disguises herself as a boy as she tries to find the rest of her family after her father dies Modern Children's Literature Catherine Butler, Kimberly Reynolds, 2014-12-12 An established introductory textbook that provides students with a guide to developments in children's literature over time and across genres This stimulating collection of critical essays written by a team of subject experts explores key British American and Australian works from picture books and texts for younger children through to graphic novels and young adult fiction It combines accessible close readings of children's texts with informed examinations of genres issues and critical contexts making it an essential practical book for students This is an ideal core text for dedicated modules on Children's literature which may be offered at the upper levels of an undergraduate literature or education degree. In addition, it is a crucial resource for students who may be studying children's literature for the first time as part of a taught postgraduate degree in literature or education. New to this Edition: Revised and updated throughout in light of recent children's books and the latest research. Includes new coverage of key topics such as canon formation, fantasy, and technology. Features an essay on children's poetry by the former Children's Laureate Michael Rosen.

Exploring Identity Development and Self Leilya A. Pitre, Mike P. Cook, 2021-02-15. This book offers readers opportunities to explore the most common universal themes taught in secondary English Language Arts classrooms using contemporary young adult literature. Authors discuss adolescence and adolescent readers' young adult literature and its possibilities in the classroom and ways to teach thematic analysis. The book provides context, traditional approaches to teaching, and examples of thematic explorations of each of the chosen themes. Chapters include developed teaching/instructional units to study three universal themes: a journey of self-discovery, good vs. bad, right vs. wrong, and making difficult choices and developing positive self-perception. Each instructional unit includes rationale, essential questions, and objectives; calendar plans for up to six weeks; examples of introductory reading and discussing; and enrichment activities and assessments. The activities target academic skills for ELA curricula and create safe spaces for exploring topics of identity, struggles, and personal growth complicated by social issues, all of which adolescents face today. Each instructional chapter suggests a wide range of additional texts and resources for theme explorations.
