

Development of a New Curriculum for Business

The curriculum for the new business program was developed by a committee of faculty members and administrators. The committee was composed of representatives from the various departments of the college, including the departments of Business Administration, Economics, Finance, Accounting, and Marketing. The committee's task was to develop a curriculum that would provide students with a broad-based education in business, while also allowing them to specialize in one or more areas of interest. The curriculum was designed to be flexible, allowing students to tailor their program of study to their individual needs and interests. The curriculum was also designed to be challenging, providing students with the opportunity to develop their critical thinking and problem-solving skills. The curriculum was developed over a period of several months, and was subject to a number of revisions. The final curriculum was approved by the faculty and administrators, and was implemented in the fall of 1998. The curriculum for the new business program is outlined below.
