Geography Paper 1 Grade 10 For November 2014:

Handbook on Gender and Health Jasmine Gideon, 2016-05-27 This Handbook brings together a groundbreaking collection of chapters that uses a gender lens to explore health care and health policy in both the Global South and North. Empirical evidence is drawn from a variety of different settings and points to the many ways in which the gendered dimensions of health have become reworked across the globe. This collection includes insightful contributions from 56 leading authorities from Africa, the Americas, Asia, Europe, and the Middle East, offering a wealth of knowledge, theoretical reflection, and empirical detail on the essential elements surrounding gender and health. Topics covered include theoretical approaches to understanding gender and health, migration, sexuality, ageing, masculinities, climate change, and sexual and reproductive rights. Split into four thematic sections, this book strives to develop a clear road map towards achieving gender justice in health. The Handbook on Gender and Health will be an important resource for researchers, students, and instructors of health policy and family and gender studies. Contributors include G. Alvarez, M. E. Ansoléaga, L. Moreno, L. Artazcoz, A. E. Birn, R. A. Burgess, A. Coates, I. Cortés, S. Del Pino, K. Devries, X. D. Berr, L. Doyal, K. Elzein, V. Escobar, B. Eveslage, C. Ewig, J. Gideon, J. Bradford DeLong, Marshall Steinbaum, 2017-05-08 Are Thomas Piketty's analyses of inequality on target? Where should researchers go from here in exploring the ideas he pushed to the forefront of global conversation? In After Piketty, a cast of economists and other social scientists tackle these questions in dialogue with Piketty in what is sure to be a much-debated book in its own right. Mastering Primary History Karin Doull, Christopher Russell, Alison Hales, 2019-02-21 Mastering Primary History introduces the primary history curriculum and helps trainees and teachers learn how to plan and teach inspiring lessons that make learning history irresistible. Topics covered include Current developments in history, History as an irresistible activity, History as a practical activity, Skills to develop in history, Promoting curiosity, Assessing children in history, Practical issues. This guide includes examples of children's work, case studies, readings to reflect upon, and reflective questions that all help to show students and teachers what is considered to be best and most innovative practice and how they can use that knowledge in their own teaching to the greatest effect. The book draws on the experience of three leading professionals in primary history: Karin Doull, Christopher Russell, and Alison Hales, to provide the essential guide to teaching history for all trainee primary teachers. Local Experiences of Mining in Peru Gerardo Castillo Guzmán, 2020-02-05 This book uses a multimethod approach to examine local experience of contemporary mining development in the Peruvian Andes, creating an understanding of the transformations that rural societies experience in this context Mining is a major component of economic growth in many resource endowed countries whilst also causing mixed social cultural and environmental effects Most current literature on contemporary mining in Peru is largely focussed on conflict however in this text the author takes a differing approach by examining the experiences of families in the vicinity of Rio Tinto s La Granja exploration copper project Northern Peru an area with great significance due to the mining investment and development which has taken place over the past 25 years The book first provides a critical discussion about production of space theories and debates on spatial mobility highlighting their relevance to understanding large scale mining developments especially in the Peruvian Andes The following chapters analyze spatial transformations mining development has prompted focusing on four axes access to space production mobility and representations of space A comprehensive narrative is constructed drawing on diverse voices and perspectives including those of family heads and their partners local leaders company employees and social scientists The book concludes by discussing how the findings challenge some of the current accounts of the social effects of mining development on rural communities and pose significant implications for sustainable development programs and place based practices By taking an interdisciplinary approach this book will appeal to a wide audience including geographers social anthropologists and social scientists interested in the social effects of mining as well as researchers interested in current Latin American Studies and Rural Development The English Professor

Margaret R. O'Leary/Dennis S. O'Leary,2016-02-04 Across the span of more than forty years Raphael Dorman O Leary a professor of English rhetoric and English literature taught his students at the University of Kansas to think straight to put sinew into their sentences and to embrace the magnificent literary treasures of their mother tongue The English Professor by authors Margaret R O Leary and Dennis S O Leary offers a narrative of the life work and times of a revered Midwestern university English teacher This memoir narrates how the professor born in 1866 was raised on a Kansas farm in the post bellum era Like his father before him he was committed to a life of learning and teaching His colleagues knew him for his unpretentious exterior honesty and integrity and his flashing anger at cheapness vulgarity pretense and above all charlatanism When Professor O Leary died after a short illness in 1936 his personal effects passed through two generations to his grandson Dennis S O Leary who with his wife Margaret discovered his papers while restoring a family house The trove of material served as the core resource for the compilation of The English Professor It provides insights into the histories of Kansas and the University of Kansas and of Harvard University as well as perspectives on higher education including the teaching of English rhetoric language literature journalism and oratory in the United States The End of Public Schools

David W. Hursh,2015-10-16 The End of Public Schools analyzes the effect of foundations corporations and non governmental organizations on the rise of neoliberal principles in public education By first contextualizing the privatization of education within the context of a larger educational crisis and with particular emphasis on the Gates Foundation and influential state and national politicians it describes how specific policies that limit public control are advanced across all levels Informed by a thorough understanding of issues such as standardized testing teacher tenure and charter schools David Hursh provides a political and pedagogical critique of the current school reform movement as well details about the increasing resistance efforts on the part of parents teachers and the general public

Rare Earth Frontiers Julie M. Klinger, 2018-01-15 Rare Earth Frontiers is a work of human geography that serves to demystify the powerful elements that make possible the miniaturization of electronics green energy and medical technologies and essential telecommunications and defense systems Julie Michelle Klinger draws attention to the fact that the rare earths we rely on most are as common as copper or lead and this means the implications of their extraction are global Klinger excavates the rich historical origins and ongoing ramifications of the quest to mine rare earths in ever more impossible places Klinger writes about the devastating damage to lives and the environment caused by the exploitation of rare earths She demonstrates in human terms how scarcity myths have been conscripted into diverse geopolitical campaigns that use rare earth mining as a pretext to capture spaces that have historically fallen beyond the grasp of centralized power These include legally and logistically forbidding locations in the Amazon Greenland and Afghanistan and on the Moon Drawing on ethnographic archival and interview data gathered in local languages and offering possible solutions to the problems it documents this book examines the production of the rare earth frontier as a place a concept and a zone of contestation sacrifice and transformation
