My Educational Autobiography

I remember my parents recently telling me all these stories about how they never got the chance to go to school and have a good education. Both of them have somewhat similar stories that they have shared with me. Both of my parents came from very poor, but large families and had grown up in very small villages in Vietnam. They both had responsibilities of working to provide food and care for their siblings since they were both one of the oldest in the family. My mom explained how her parents had to go out to sea and fish daily to make only a few cents in U.S. currency, and how she literally had to care for her brothers as a mother would at the age of only nine. It was only until she and her family had moved to the United States when she was about the age of fifteen years. Then and there, she was finally given the opportunity to go to school, but only for a little while due to having financial issues within the family, which caused her to drop out and work full time. My dad actually never got the opportunity to get an education because his family simply just couldn't afford to send anyone in his family to school, and by the time he had moved to the U.S., it was already considered to be too late. He ended up having to work several jobs just to support himself because he had came here with nothing.

Due to their experience and lack of opportunity to good or decent education, growing up, my parents always made sure I had activities to do that would help me speak, read, or write in order to learn the English language. They provided me with everything I needed because they wanted to make sure I was given a better life and childhood than them. When it came to school

How To Write An Educational Autobiography:

Writing Educational Biography Craig Kridel, 2013-11-26 This collection examines the many influences of biographical inquiry in education and discusses methodological issues from the perspective of veteran and novice biographers Contributors underscore the documentary interpretive and literary concerns of biographical and archival work and their essays reveal the complexity distinctiveness and sense of exploration of scholarly endeavors

Writing an Educational Autobiography as a Way to Become a Reflective Teacher Isti Rokhiyah, 2015 This dissertation presents my educational autobiography the result of my reflection on experiences during my school life my teaching life and my life as a mother to reveal who I am personally and professionally in my journey to become a reflective teacher a teacher who takes her students wellbeing into her mind in the everyday life of classrooms and schools In order to write my stories I searched incidences that related to my experiences with learning and teaching and making sense of them Through the process of framing and reframing my experiences I gained a better understanding of my journey as an educator and became capable of articulating my experiences along this journey My broad goal in this thesis is to improve the quality of teacher education at Universitas Terbuka UT through broadening the notion of reflection in its curriculum As writing autobiography is one of the pathways to becoming a reflective teacher I would like to experience the process of writing autobiography before I introduce the idea to student teachers I would like to experience the dark the disoriented the dreadful feeling and the brightness of writing autobiography narratively Writing my autobiography not only helped me to excavate my old lives and make meaning out of them revealing my self but also to realise the importance of learning from my experience Professionally writing my autobiography helped to overcome my fear of writing The process of making meaning of incidents was strengthened by my understanding of concepts and theories that could be used to illuminate them I gained new knowledge because writing my autobiography encouraged me to search for related literatures that helped me understand my experiences From my experience of writing my autobiography and synthesizing theories and practices of reflection in teacher education I propose ideas to improve UT s teacher education by strengthening the notion of reflection in its curriculum

Strategies for Student Support During a Global Crisis Herron, Jeffrey D., Douglas, Taurean, 2021-06-25 When a global crisis impacts nearly every industry education is always one of the most impacted as students and faculty must frantically try to maintain their educational programs throughout uncertain times Beyond the educational courses themselves being shifted online or to hybrid approaches there must be a focus on the impact on students as well With newfound ways of learning new online environments and new methods for teaching students are greatly impacted by the changing face of education The traditional ways in which students have been served and assisted have changed rapidly and to make matters even more challenging students must handle both living in a time of crisis while adapting to swift educational transformations The dissemination of best practices and maintaining student success during global crises is an area of research that is not only growing in interest but is critical in pandemic times Strategies for Student Support During a Global Crisis reflects on how educational professionals have worked with students during global crises how serving and teaching students have been impacted and the best practices for student success in both online education and hybrid formats The chapters will include topics such as mentoring models teaching methods educational technologies teacher insights academic support services and more This book is ideal for educational professionals leaders school administration teachers teacher educators practitioners stakeholders researchers academicians and students interested in the best strategies for supporting students and promoting student success during global crises

A Memoir of an Educational Biographer Gerald L. Gutek, 2024-09-01 In his interdisciplinary memoir Gerald Gutek applies history and philosophy of education to educational biography The author was guided by his focusing goals of exploring his path to becoming an educational biographer and working generalizations with his colleagues in the field Gutek s narrative begins with the author s childhood experiences that inclined him to a career in education followed by chapters on his doctoral program in the College of Education at the University of Illinois in Champaign Urbana his teaching of history and philosophy and education in the School of Education at Loyola University Chicago his research and writing of biographies of Johann Heinrich Pestalozzi and Joseph Neef and his textbook Historical and Philosophical Foundations of Education a Biographical Introduction and issues and strategies in writing about Maria Montessori Throughout the book Gutek analyzes concepts and applications he developed as an educational biographer such as parallel biographies slice of life writing reconsidering overlooked and understudied educators and the role of place and space in telling life stories

ENDORSEMENTS Readers both new to educational biography or familiar with the discipline will find a valuable account of the author s long and varied career as a biographer From his childhood memory of listening to neighbors stories in his grandfather s grocery store to encounters with the important teachers in his life Gutek brings his own story to life As he recounts the influences on his personal intellectual history and the processes of his research and writing readers gain valuable insights into the methods of an experienced educational biographer Larry Prochner University of Alberta For fifty years Gerald Gutek has been and remains one of the seminal and leading voices in the field of educational biography thus it only makes sense for him to create something new an intellectual memoir From his work on Counts in 1970 to his work on Montessori 2016 and her acolytes in the US 2020 Gutek has reliably bridged the worlds of educational history educational biography and philosophical foundations of education this work cements his legacy Gutek skillfully interweaves personal and family history with movements in educational history both formal and informal then explains how these impacted his thinking and writing Throughout this eminently readable memoir Gutek also includes political and historical context without engaging in divisiveness Scholars of life writing should give this a close reading as Gutek sprinkles nuggets of methodological brilliance throughout the manuscript Junior scholars would do well to read Gutek s more substantive sections on the methods used to write each of his books it is the academic equivalent of Master Class in textual form Ed

Janak University of Toledo Autobiography, Fan Fiction, and Education Nicola Robertson, Yueling Chen, 2025-10-02 This book illuminates the relationship between autobiography fan fiction and education via philosophical pedagogical and formative perspectives How might we consider autobiography and fan fiction writing to be educational How can we harness the potential of fan fiction writing for pedagogical use How does the practice of creating and consuming fan fiction autobiographical texts support the formation of identity This book brings together contributors from across the world to consider the answers to these questions and more with the resulting interpretations and perspectives offering something novel in the linking of these three concepts Separated into three distinct sections the chapters in this book look first at philosophical perspectives moving on to pedagogical approaches and finally the role of fan fiction and autobiography in the formation of individual and social identities The eclectic mix of arguments methods and styles aims to provide insights to readers interested in life writing popular culture and media studies and those engaged in the multiple sub disciplines of education studies Value of the Educational Autobiography as a Method of Studying Occupational Interest Patterns and Adjustment of College Students LeRoy Wensel Ullrich, 1954 "Stretching" Exercises for Qualitative Researchers Valerie J.
