

5. Observing class members shared a classroom during conference and participants received the book and their reflections were incorporated in the design/development of the curriculum. Thus, the initial, ongoing consultation process of this project, which began a classroom teacher, through the initial group of class members, should see the design/development of the book. This is a goal of the project. Participants have been asked to provide an outline of possible writing projects and have been asked to provide feedback.

5. Subscribers need clear, concise communication regarding subscription services that customers can access online. Two focus group sessions were conducted by telephone, lasting approximately one hour each. Each focus group consisted of a facilitator (graduate student) to conduct the study, an additional participant who had experience with the service, and a participant to conduct the study. The participants were asked to discuss their experience with the service, their expectations for the service, and their suggestions for improvement. The results of the focus group sessions are discussed in the next section.

8. Journal Quarterly (Chicago) is a literary-religious journal that, "drawing to the forefront of the scene" the great religious and literary figures of the past, "presents and publishes the most important religious ideas" (the authorship is as yet unknown: the issue accompanying it).
