Racist America Joe R. Feagin, 2014-01-21 This third edition of Joe R Feagin's Racist America is significantly revised and updated with an eye toward racism issues arising regularly in our contemporary era This edition incorporates more than two hundred recent research studies and reports on U S racial issues that update and enhance all the last edition's chapters It expands the discussion and data on concepts such as the white racial frame and systemic racism from research studies by Feagin and his colleagues The author has further polished the book to make it yet more readable for undergraduates including eliminating repetitive materials adding headings and more cross referencing and adding new examples anecdotes and narratives about contemporary racism The Impact of State Restructuring on Indonesia's Regional Economic Convergence Adiwan Fahlan Aritenang, 2016-06-15 The creation of ASEAN Free Trade Area AFTA in 1992 and decentralization in 1999 mark the state restructuring in Indonesia This book analyses the impact of state restructuring on regional economic development in Indonesia between 1993 and 2010 Regional economic analysis shows persistent and severe regional disparities throughout the period Particularly econometrics study found that decentralization has accelerated regional disparities whilst the AFTA effect is insignificant on regional economic growth Furthermore historical institutionalism analysis on two cities the manufacturing industry in Batam and the creative economy in Bandung shows that past and embedded local institutions provide the capacity to adapt and create new development paths The book suggests the importance of local specific policies that embrace local knowledge and institutions to develop regional specialization and competitive advantage This book fills the gap in Indonesian literature that lacks studies on the integrated impact of decentralization and trade liberalization both economically and politically Fragmenting Globalization Ka Zeng, Xiaojun Li, 2021-03-15 Global supply chain integration is not only a rapidly growing feature of international trade it is responsible for fundamentally changing trade policy at international and domestic levels Given that final goods are produced with both domestic and foreign suppliers Ka Zeng and Xiaojun Li argue that global supply chain integration pits firms and industries that are more heavily dependent on foreign supply chains against those that are less dependent on intermediate goods for domestic production Hence businesses whose supply chain would be disrupted as a result of increased trade barriers should lobby for preferential trade liberalization to maintain access to those foreign markets Moreover businesses whose products are used in the production of goods in foreign countries should also support preferential trade liberalization to compete with suppliers from other parts of the world Fragmenting Globalization uses multiple methods including time series cross sectional analysis of the pattern of Preferential Trade Alliance formation by existing World Trade Organization members a firm level survey and case studies of the pattern of corporate support for regional trade liberalization in both China and the United States Zeng and Li show that the growing fragmentation of global production trade and investment is altering trade policy away from the traditional divide between export oriented and import competing industries
