THESIS PROPOSAL:

Title.....

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Please summarize in two to three paragraphs your thesis proposal. Include all key aspects that you have elaborated upon: topic, problem, objectives, literature, research questions, methods, and relevance of your study.

1. THE TOPIC / PROBLEM

2. LITERATURE REVIEW: PREVIOUS WORK ON THE TOPIC

The literature review should explain how your research topic is related to significant literature and current trends in your field. What has been written about this topic before? What have you read and by whom? What are the existing relevant debates, theories and findings? What are the key ideas, theories, concepts, and findings in the current literature on that topic, and those specific problems? The literature review should demonstrate that you are aware of relevant research in your field of study.

3. THEORETICAL CONCERNS / SITUATING THE STUDY IN THE FIELD

Here, you should position your study in relation to the reviewed literature. Also, here you should state your basic ideas about the topic. What has been overlooked in the existing studies and theories in relation to the topic and the research problem of interest to you? Are there any new factors, ideas, problems, concepts, etc. that you think should be considered and added to the debate?

How to Write a BA Thesis Charles Lipson,2007-12-01 The senior thesis is the capstone of a college education but writing one can be a daunting prospect. Students need to choose their own topic and select the right adviser. Then they need to work steadily for several months as they research, write, and manage a major independent project. Now there's a mentor to help. How to Write a BA Thesis is a practical, friendly guide written by Charles Lipson, an experienced professor who has guided hundreds of students through the thesis writing process. This book offers step-by-step advice on how to turn a vague idea into a clearly defined proposal, then a draft paper, and ultimately a polished thesis. Lipson also tackles issues beyond the classroom, from good work habits to coping with personal problems that interfere with research and writing. Filled with examples and easy-to-use highlighted tips, the book also includes handy time schedules that show when to begin various tasks and how much time to spend on each. Convenient checklists remind students which steps need special attention, and a detailed appendix filled with examples shows how to use the three main citation systems in the humanities and social sciences: MLA, APA, and Chicago. How to Write a BA Thesis will help students work more comfortably and effectively on their own and with their advisers. Its clear guidelines and sensible advice make it the perfect text for thesis workshops. Students and their advisers will refer again and again to this invaluable resource. From choosing a topic to preparing the final paper, How to Write a BA Thesis helps students turn a daunting prospect into a remarkable achievement.
