chances of passing the exam the first time The Psychology of Chinese Gambling Chi Chuen Chan, William Wai Lim Li, Amy Sau Lam Chiu, 2019-02-11 This book critically discusses the psychology of Chinese gambling from a cultural perspective. In particular, it investigates the history of gambling, the prevalence of gambling in China, and the personality of Chinese gamblers, and explores how the Chinese culture has contributed to the development of gambling and gambling problems. Further, it examines specific evidence-based treatment for Chinese problem gamblers and provides a therapeutic model that is tailored to their needs and psychology. This book is useful for students and academics conducting research on Chinese gamblers and the treatments that work for them A Comprehensive Guide to Music Therapy, 2nd Edition

Stine Lindahl Jacobsen, Inge Nygaard Pedersen, Lars Ole Bonde, 2019-05-21 Music therapists have a rich diversity of approaches and methods often developed with specific relevance to meet the needs of a certain client population. This updated edition reflects this diversity and is a comprehensive guide to accessing the ideas, theory, research results, and clinical outcomes that are the foundations of this field Human-Centred Web Adaptation and Personalization

Panagiotis Germanakos, Marios Belk, 2016-02-19 This book focuses on the importance of adaptation and personalization in today's society, and the upgraded role of computational systems and the Internet in our day-to-day activities. In this era of wireless communication, pervasive computing, and the Internet of Things, it is becoming increasingly critical to ensure humans remain central in the developmental process of new technologies to guarantee their continued usefulness and a positive end-user experience. Organized into three clear parts: theory, principles, and practice, a holistic approach to designing and developing adaptive interactive systems and services has been adopted. With an emphasis on distinct human factors, both basic and applied research topics are explored, extending from human-centred user models driven by user's individual differences in cognitive processing and emotions to the creation of smart interfaces that can handle the ever-increasing volume and complexity of information to the benefit of the end user. Human Centred Web Adaptation and Personalization: From Theory to Practice is meticulously crafted to serve researchers, practitioners, and students who wish to have an end-to-end understanding of how to convert pure research and scientific results into viable user interfaces, system components, and applications. It will serve to bridge the knowledge gap that still remains by suggesting interaction design and implementation guidelines for areas like E-Commerce, E-Learning, and Usable Security Handbook of Mechanical and Electrical Cost Data

Halbert Powers Gillette, Richard Turner Dana, 1918 Environmental Determinants of Human Health Jozef M.

Pacyna, Elisabeth G. Pacyna, 2016-10-18 Polluted air and contaminated food and water are major causes of human health deterioration, but public health policy has long struggled to effectively address these concerns. This timely book, written for a wide audience of policy makers, researchers, and general readers, synthesizes what we already know about environmental hazards, identifies the gaps in our knowledge, and provides a roadmap for reducing human exposure to environmental pollution. With contributions from leading experts, Environmental Determinants of Human Health examines numerous pollutants both inorganic and organic in the context of their human health impacts Individual chapters explore exposure pathways macroeconomic impacts of human health deterioration technological and non technological methods for reducing exposures monetary and non monetary benefits from exposure reduction and risk communication and awareness including citizen participation approaches This volume is a crucial text for policy makers requiring scientific justification for the development of new environmental regulations scientists researching public health and environmental contamination and members of the public interested in human health issues
