21st Century Medievalisms Karl Christian Alvestad, 2023-06-01 21st Century Medievalisms Between the Global and Individual is an edited volume consisting of 14 chapters by scholars interested in contemporary medievalisms across the world. It is a timely contribution to the growing scholarship on medievalisms, offering chapters that consider both the individual experiences of medievalisms as well as those of societies and cultures at large. The chapters of the book are grouped into three parts: the first explores stereotypes and myths in medievalisms; the second examines medievalisms that speak to particular communities and audiences; and the third studies how medievalisms are impacted by or stimulate conversations of politics and gender. These chapters all reflect a growing interest in medievalisms and the appreciation of how they are present, materialise and evolve in different contexts, and offers insights into medievalisms in politics, popular culture, social activism and more. Throughout the book, examples and case studies demonstrate how medievalisms in the modern age are at times individual experiences, at other times global phenomena, and sometimes are in between. Therefore, these medievalisms can speak to different audiences at the same time, showcasing how the Middle Ages and their memory continue to be a pertinent topic of study within the wider field of medieval studies.
