MYSTERY AT CAMP OCEANWOOD

character

setting

situation

Gwen and Shontie's father were getting ready to open their own nature camp at the beach. Would something interfere with their opening? The men had met as boys at summer camp and had dreamed of opening their own camp one day. When Gwen's dad lost his job and Shontie's dad wanted a career change, they revisited their boyhood dreams. The two men sank every penny they had into buying a rundown old camp and naming it Camp Oceanwood. They were turning it into a year-round retreat for families and kids. The men had undertaken the Herculean task of refinishing and decorating the cabins, organizing the activities, hiring staff, advertising, and more, hoping to have a great first season to turn a profit. They gave Gwen and Shontie jobs as junior counselors and all-around helpers. However, something happened in the first week that made the teens fear for the camp's success.
