

MOTIVATIONAL SPEECH OUTLINE

Feel free to use this as a template to help you take your motivational ideas and map them in a clear and coherent manner.

Our Thoughts Control Our Lives

INTRO {

Have you ever considered that all your happiness—or all your misery—is a direct result of your own mind?

HOOK {

Yup, even that cancer diagnosis is within your control. Of course, the cancer cells themselves are not within your control, but your reaction to them is. Where will you let your mind wander today?

BODY {

Philippians 4:8

- The Bible is the oldest (and most read) book in all the world. It says: Finally, brothers and sisters, whatever is true, whatever is noble, whatever is right, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is admirable—if anything is excellent or praiseworthy—think about such things.

Habits Take 21 Days to Form

- Fake it ‘til you make it. Think thoughts of positivity for three weeks straight and see what happens.

Nothing Left to Lose

- Negative thoughts are a vortex. One leads to another, to another, to another.
- Positive thoughts are also a vortex. But, they ping pong from uplifting thought to uplifting thought.
- What do you have to lose by faking it ‘til you make it?
- Let positivity become your reality today.

CONCLUSION {

Pick up a journal and make it your accountability partner. Journal three things you’re grateful for every morning. Then, focus on what is right, what is lovely. After three short weeks, see how your life looks then.

Counseling and Motivational Interviewing in Speech-Language Pathology Jerry Hoepner, 2024-06-01 Written as a helpful guide for speech language pathologists and students Counseling and Motivational Interviewing in Speech Language Pathology provides a solid base in theoretical foundations while prioritizing skill development and practical applications of counseling in speech language pathology. Now more than ever there is a burgeoning need for speech language pathologists to incorporate counseling into their everyday practice. However, most practitioners currently lack the training and knowledge necessary to fulfill that role. Counseling and Motivational Interviewing in Speech Language Pathology seeks to remedy that by providing techniques and tools for counseling across the lifespan and practice settings. The book is divided into two main parts. Chapters 1 through 4 cover the foundational principles of motivational interviewing including several self-assessment tools to support learners in the process. Chapters 5 through 8 address specific counseling techniques and topics providing readers with practical examples of how to properly counsel individuals with communication, cognition, and swallowing disorders. What's included in Counseling and Motivational Interviewing in Speech Language Pathology: Sample dialogues between clinicians and clients, Case examples, thinking exercises, and potential assignments for readers to apply the knowledge and skills addressed in the book. A chapter dedicated to communicatively accessible structured interview approaches eliciting and monitoring collaborative goals and screening for other mental health concerns. Counseling and Motivational Interviewing in Speech Language Pathology is an approachable guide that will address the issues of scope of practice while proving why speech language pathologists are uniquely suited to provide counseling. Talking Is a Gift Rhonda Harrington Kelley, Monica Rose Brennan, 2014-02-01. Speech for Effective Communication Holt Rinehart & Winston, 1998-02. The Rhetorical Leadership of Fulton J. Sheen, Norman Vincent Peale, and Billy Graham in the Age of Extremes Timothy H. Sherwood, 2013-08-15. Fulton J. Sheen, Norman Vincent Peale, and Billy Graham were America's most popular religious leaders during the mid-twentieth century period known as the golden years of the Age of Extremes. It was part of an era that encompassed polemic contrasts of good and evil on the world stage in political philosophies and international relations. The 1950s and early 1960s, in particular, were years of high anxiety, competing ideologies, and hero/villain mania in America. Sheen was the voice of reason who spoke against those conflicting ideologies which were hostile to religious faith and democracy. Peale preached the gospel of reassurance, self-assurance, and success despite ominous global threats, and Graham was the heroic model of faith whose message of conversion provided Americans an identity and direction opposite to atheistic communism This study looks at how and why their rhetorical leadership both separately and together contributed to the climate of an extreme era and influenced a national religious revival The Articulate Person Bruce E.
