Aschheim,2012-05-15 The essays in this volume seek to confront some of the charged meeting points of European especially German and Jewish history All in one way or another explore the entanglements the intertwined moments of empathy and enmity belonging and estrangement creativity and destructiveness that occurred at these junctions These encounters typically unfolded within an uneasy continuum of conflict and co operation conformity and resistance refashioning or maintaining personal and collective dimensions of identity Clearly they never allowed for the luxury of indifference Yet it would be wrong to present meetings of this kind as exclusively confrontational as stark either or choices Life at the junctions may be vulnerable and insecure but it can also yield fresh angles of perception and new opportunities If these boundary situations generated a modicum of friction confusion and anxiety and at times even murderousness they also produced new alliances and friendships creative projects and novel fusions and formations of identity In exploring these dramatic moments in history Steven Aschheim provides valuable new insights into the history of Europe Israel and global Judaism The Songs We Know Best Karin Roffman,2017-06-13 The first biography of an American master The Songs We Know Best the first comprehensive biography of the early life of John Ashbery the winner of nearly every major American literary award reveals the unusual ways he drew on the details of his youth to populate the poems that made him one of the most original and unpredictable forces of the last century in arts and letters Drawing on unpublished correspondence juvenilia and childhood diaries as well as more than one hundred hours of conversation with the poet Karin Roffman offers an insightful portrayal of Ashbery during the twenty eight years that led up to his stunning debut Some Trees chosen by W H Auden for the 1955 Yale Younger Poets Prize Roffman shows how Ashbery s poetry arose from his early lessons both on the family farm and in 1950s New York City a bohemian existence that teemed with artistic fervor and radical innovations inspired by Dada and surrealism as well as lifelong friendships with painters and writers such as Frank O Hara Jane Freilicher Nell Blaine Kenneth Koch James Schuyler and Willem de Kooning Ashbery has a reputation for being enigmatic and playfully elusive but Roffman s biography reveals his deft mining of his early life for the flint and tinder from which his provocative later poems grew producing a body of work that he calls the experience of experience an intertwining
