Indigenusness in Africa Felix Mukwiza Ndahinda, 2011-04-27 With a Foreword by Prof Asbj rn Eide a former Chairman of the UN Working Group on Indigenous Populations Chairman of the UN Working Group on Minorities President of the Advisory Committee on National Minorities of the Council of Europe Following the internationalization of the indigenous rights movement a growing number of African hunter gatherers pastoralists and other communities have channelled their claims for special legal protection through the global indigenous rights movement Their claims as the indigenous peoples of Africa are backed by many international actors such as indigenous rights activists donors and some academia However indigenous identification is contested by many African governments some members of non claimant communities and a number of anthropologists who have extensively interacted with claimant indigenous groups This book explores the sources as well as the legal and political implications of indigenous identification in Africa By highlighting the quasi inexistence of systematic and discursive rather than activist studies on the subject matter the analysis questions the appropriateness of this framework in efforts aimed at empowering claimant communities in inherently multiethnic African

Multicultural Education in Glocal Perspectives Yun-Kyung Cha, Jagdish Gundara, Seung-Hwan Ham, Moosung Lee, 2016-11-15 This conceptually rich and empirically grounded book draws upon expertise from a panel of emerging and established international scholars to explore the institutionalization and effect of multicultural education on a global scale Previous studies of multicultural education have largely ignored the significance of understanding the combination of multiple sociopolitical influences on multicultural education in both policy and practice Filling this void this book sheds light on the two main reasons for taking a glocal perspective on multicultural education First children should be provided with meaningful learning opportunities to acquire the knowledge skills and attitudes necessary to live in a culturally and ethno linguistically diverse society where the distinction between the local and the global is becoming blurred Second understanding both the global grammar and the local semantics of multicultural education helps researchers and policy makers grasp the whole picture of multicultural education as an evolving social construct and phenomenon This new book provokes a new round of discussion and research to expand and enrich our inquiry into cultural diversity and educational inclusion

Stating the Sacred Michael J. Walsh, 2020-02-25 China's constitution explicitly refers to its sovereign domain as sacred territory Why does an avowedly secular state make such a claim and what does this suggest about the relations between religion and the nation state Focusing primarily on China Stating the Sacred offers a novel approach to nation state formation arguing that its most critical element is how the state sacralizes the nation Michael J Walsh explores the religious and political dimensions of Chinese state ideology making the case that the sacred is a constitutive part of modern China He examines the structural connection among texts constitutions legal codes national histories ostensibly universal and normative categories race religion citizenship freedom human rights and territoriality the integrity of sovereignty and control over resources and people showing how they are bound together by the sacred Considering a variety of what he refers to as theopolitical techniques Walsh argues that nation states undertake sacralization in order to legitimate the violence of establishing and expanding their sovereignty Ultimately territorialization is a form of sacralization and the foundational role of the sacred makes all nation states religious states Stating the Sacred offers new ways of understanding China s approach to legality control of the populace religious freedom human rights and the structuring of international relations and it raises existential questions about the fundamental nature of the nation state Language Planning and Policy in Africa Richard B Baldauf (Jr.),Robert B.
