Geography Paper 2 2014 Zimsec:

Urban Geography in Postcolonial Zimbabwe Abraham R. Matamanda, Verna Nel, Innocent Chirisa, 2021-05-07 This interdisciplinary book provides a cross sectoral and multi dimensional exploration and assessment of the urban geography perspectives in Zimbabwe Drawing on work from different disciplines the book not only contributes to academia but also seeks to inform urban policy with the view of contributing to the national aspirations of Zimbabwe attaining middle income status by 2030 Adopting a multi dimensional assessment that transcends disciplines such as urban and regional planning human and physical geography urban governance political science economics and development studies the book provides a background for co production concerning urban development in the Global South The book contributes into its analysis of the institutional and legislative framework that relates to the urban geography of Zimbabwe as these are responsible for the evolution of the urban system in the country The connections among different sectors and issues such as environment economy politics and the wider objectives of the SDGs especially goal 11 aspiring to create sustainable communities by 2030 are explored The success stories relating to urban geography in Zimbabwe are identified together with the best possible practices that may inform urban planning policy and management

Urban Infrastructure in Zimbabwe Innocent Chirisa, Abraham R. Matamanda, 2023-11-29 The book provides insights into urban infrastructure debates and discourses in Zimbabwe Through an inter disciplinary and multi disciplinary approach the book explores the theoretical conceptual and lived experiences in urban infrastructure The book focuses on case studies relating to urban transport public housing water and sanitation and Geographical Information Systems GIS among other substantive issues relating to urban infrastructure and services

Climate Change and Agriculture in Zimbabwe Mark Matsa, 2020-09-03 This book proves through empirical research that indigenous and traditional agricultural communities have experienced severe climate change impacts and have developed corresponding livelihood strategies to strengthen their resilience in a variable climate With a focus on indigenous minority farming communities in the developing region of South Western Zimbabwe the study presents both qualitative and quantitative approaches of data analysis to assess sustainability problems amid climate change and climate variability challenges and proposes potential solutions In eight chapters the book expands on the scarce availability of community based research on climate change and variability in Zimbabwe The book is meant for college and university students and stakeholders involved in development work in rural minority farmer communities especially in climate change prone regions of Africa and other developing countries who have very few options of adaptation and mitigation

Power in Contemporary Zimbabwe Erasmus Masitera, Fortune Sibanda, 2018-04-20 In recent years the Zimbabwe crisis rendered the country and its citizens to be a typical case of failed states the world over Zimbabwean society was and is still confronted with different challenges which include political economic and social problems Attempts to overcome these challenges have thrown light on the power that rests within individuals and or groups to change and even revolutionize their localities communities states and ultimately the world at large Through experience individuals and groups have promoted ideas that have aided in changing mentalities attitudes and behaviors in societies at different levels This book brings together contributors from various academic disciplines to reflect on and theorize the contours of power including the intrinsic and or extrinsic models of power which pertain to individuals communities and or groups in order to transform society Reflections are on various groups such as political movements environmental movements religious groups advocacy groups gender groups to mention but a few as they struggle against marginalization discrimination exploitation and other forms of oppression showing their agency or compliance

Informal Migrant Entrepreneurship and Inclusive Growth in South Africa, Zimbabwe and Mozambique Crush, Jonathan, 2017-01-17 While increasing attention is being paid to the drivers and forms of entrepreneurship in informal economies much less of this policy and research focus is directed at understanding the links between mobility and informality This report examines the current state of knowledge about this relationship with particular reference to three countries Mozambique South Africa and Zimbabwe and four cities Cape Town Harare Johannesburg and Maputo identifying major themes knowledge gaps research questions and policy implications , Aspects of Real Estate Theory and Practice in Zimbabwe Chirisa, Innocent, Juru, Mike Eric, 2019-08-23 The subject of real estate is increasingly becoming important especially in the countries of the developing world States and governments realise that real estate is a corner stone of socio economic development Real estate development contributes immensely to the gross physical capital formation Its formation construction and ancillary sectors contribute to the employment infrastructure development and gross domestic product The main challenges about real estate is about where to develop it how to develop it how to manage and compute valuations about it Such are the issues discussed in this volume The book draws on Zimbabwe as a case study to demonstrate the critical aspects that define theory and real estate practice in various contexts national regional and international

Rural Transformations Holly Barcus, Roy Jones, Serge Schmitz, 2022-03-30 This book focuses on the transformation of rural places peoples and land endemic to the contemporary manifestations of globalization Migration global economic restructuring and climate change are rapidly transforming rural places across the globe Yet global attention characteristically focuses on urban social and economic issues neglecting the continued roles of rural people and places Organized around the three core themes of demographic change rural urban partnerships and innovations and landscape change the case studies included in this volume represent both the Global North and Global South and underscore the complexity and multi scalar nature of these contemporary challenges in rural development planning and sustainability This book would be valuable supplementary reading for both students and professionals in the fields of rural land management and rural planning

Reanimating Regions James Riding, Martin Jones, 2017-05-12 Writing regions undertaking a regional study was once a standard form of geographic communication and critique This was until the quantitative revolution in the middle of the previous century and more definitively the critical turn in human geography towards the end of the twentieth century From then on writing regions as they were experienced phenomenologically or arguing culturally historically and politically with regions was deemed to be old fashioned Yet the region is and always will be a central geographical concept and thinking about regions can tell us a lot about the history of the discipline called geography Despite taking up an identifiable place within the geographical imagination in scholarship and beyond region remains a relatively forgotten under used and in part under theorised term Reanimating Regions marks the continued reinvigoration of a set of disciplinary debates surrounding regions the regional and regional geography Across 18 chapters from international interdisciplinary scholars this book writes and performs region as a temporary permanence something held stable not fixed and absolute at different points in time for different purposes There is as this expansive volume outlines no single reading of a region Reanimating Regions collectively rebalances the region within geography and geographical thought In renewing the geography of regions as not only a site of investigation but also as an analytical framework through which to write the world what emerges is a powerful reworking of the geographic imagination Read against one another the chapters weave together timely commentaries on region and regions across the globe with a particular emphasis upon the regional as played out in the United Kingdom and regional worlds both within and beyond Europe offering chapters from Africa and South America Addressing both the political and the cultural this volume responds to the need for a consolidated and considered reflection on region the regional and regional geography speaking directly to broader intellectual concerns with performance aesthetics identity mobilities the environment and the body

Africa Tony Binns, Etienne Nel, Alan Dixon, Kenneth Lynch, 2023-12-08 Africa Diversity and Development introduces and demystifies Africa's diversity and dynamism and considers how its peoples and environments have interacted through time and space The book examines the background and diversity of Africa's social cultural economic political and environmental systems as well as key development issues which have affected Africa in the past and are likely to be significant in shaping the future of the continent These include the impact of HIV AIDS sources of conflict and post conflict reconstruction the state and governance the nature of African economies in a global context and future development trajectories This second edition features new chapters on history and governance health separate chapters on rural and urban development and updated content on all aspects of the continent particularly aspects of culture and ethnicity It is richly illustrated throughout with diagrams and plates and contains a wealth of detailed up to date case studies and current data This textbook is a refreshing interdisciplinary text which enhances understanding of the background to Africa's current position and clarifies possible future scenarios It will be a valuable resource for students taking modules on Africa African Development and Geography of Africa and will also prove useful to students in the wider fields of Geography Development Studies Global Studies Environment and Society and African Politics
