Transboundary Water Management Anton Earle, Anders Jägerskog, Joakim Öjendal, 2013-10-18 The management of water resources across boundaries whether sub national or international is one of the most difficult challenges facing water managers today The upstream exploitation or diversion of groundwater or rivers can have devastating consequences for those living downstream and transboundary rivers can provide a source of conflict between nations or states particularly where water resources are scarce Similarly water based pollution can spread across borders and create disputes and a need for sound governance 1 Introduction Setting the Scene for Transboundary Water Management Approaches 2 Why Negotiate Asymmetric endowments and asymmetric power and the invisible nexus of water trade and power that brings apparent water security 3 Power Hegemony and Critical Hydropolitics 4 Getting Beyond the Environment Conflict Trap Benefit Sharing in International River Basins 5 International Water Law concepts evolution and development 6 Aquifer Resources in a Transboundary Context A Hidden Resource Enabling the Practitioner To See It and Bank It for Good Use 7 Governance in Transboundary Basins the Role of Stakeholders Concepts and Approaches in International River Basins 8 Environmental Flows in Shared Watercourses Review of Assessment Methods and Relevance in the Transboundary Setting 9 Managing Water Negotiations and Conflicts in Concept and in Practice Contributors Index Part I Analytical Approaches to Transboundary Water Management Part II Transboundary Water Management Polity and Practice Part III Challenges and Opportunities This book is the first to bring together in a concise and accessible way all of the main topics to be considered when managing transboundary waters It will raise the awareness of practitioners of the various issues needed to be taken into account when making water management decisions and provide a practically based overview for advanced students The authors show clearly how vital it is to cooperate effectively over the management of shared waters to unlock their contribution to regional sustainable development The book is largely based on a long running and tested international training programme run by the Stockholm International Water Institute and Ramboll Natura and supported by the Swedish International Development Co operation Agency Sida where the respective authors have presented modules on the programmes It addresses issues not only of conflict but also of managing power asymmetries benefit sharing stakeholder participation international water law environmental water requirements and regional development It will be particularly useful for those with a background in hydrology or engineering who wish to broaden their management skills

Armed Groups and Contemporary Conflicts

Keith Krause, 2013-09-13 Armed groups operating beyond the state have become the most important actors in most contemporary wars and violent conflicts from Iraq and Afghanistan to Colombia and Somalia They come in a dizzying array of forms some informally linked to the state and state power others in opposition to the state some pursuing classic political goals others primarily predatory and large scale criminal enterprises All groups however challenge the state's Weberian monopoly of the legitimate use of force yet their origins evolution violent dynamics and relations with state power are poorly understood This interdisciplinary collection includes both conceptual and empirical studies of contemporary armed groups examining cases in Latin America Asia and Africa It brings sociological political economy and ethnographic approaches to bear on larger questions including armed groups and the changing nature of warfare the economic dimensions of their activities and means of engagement with armed actors It both broadens and sharpens our understanding of how force and violence are used in today's contemporary armed conflicts This book was published as a special issue of Contemporary Security Policy

Regional Worlds: Advancing the Geography of Regions

Martin Jones, Anssi Paasi, 2017-10-02 A key concern in the debate and empirical research on the geography of regions is the evolution of the conceptualizations and practical uses of the idea of region This idea prioritises both the intellectual and the practical development of regional studies This book drives the discussion further It stresses the complex forms of agency advocacy involved in the production and reproduction of regional spaces and space of regionalism as well as the importance of geohistory and context The book moves beyond the territorial relational divide that has characterized debates on regions and regional borders since the 1990s The contributors answer key questions from different conceptual and concrete contextual angles and to motivate readers to reflect on the perpetual significance of regional concepts and how they are mobilized by various actors to maintain or transform the contested spatialities of societal power relations This book was based on a special issue of Regional Studies

The Physical Geography of the Mediterranean Jamie C. Woodward, 2009-05-07 This volume explores the climates landscapes ecosystems and hazards that comprise the Mediterranean world It traces the development of the Mediterranean landscape over very long timescales and examines modern processes and key environmental issues in a wide range of settings The Mediterranean is the only region on Earth where three continents meet and this interaction has produced a very distinctive Physical Geography This book examines the landscapes and processes at the margins of these continents and the distinctive marine environment between them Catastrophic earthquakes explosive volcanic eruptions and devastating storms and floods are intimately bound up within the history and mythology of the Mediterranean world This is a key region for the study of natural hazards because it offers unrivalled access to long records of hazard occurrence and impact through documentary archaeological and geological archives The Mediterranean is also a biodiversity hotspot it has been a meeting place for plants animals and humans from three continents throughout much of its history The Quaternary records of these interactions are more varied and better preserved than in any other part of the world These records have provided important new insights into the tempo of climate landscape and ecosystem change in the Mediterranean region and beyond The region is unique because of the very early and widespread impact of humans in landscape and ecosystem change and the richness of the archaeological and geological archives that chronicle this impact This book examines this history and these interactions and places current environmental issues in long term context Contributors Ramadan Husain Abu Zied Harriet Allen Jacques Blondel Maria Carmen Llasat James Casford Marc Castellnou Andrew Goudie Andrew Harding Angela Hayes Tom Holt Babette Hoogakker Philip Hughes Jos Lelieveld John Lewin Francisco Lloret Francisco Lopez Bermudez Mark Macklin Jean Margat Anne Mather Fr d ric M dail Christophe Morhange Clive Oppenheimer JeanPalutikof Gerassimos Papadopoulos Josep Pi ol David Pyle Jane Reed Neil Roberts Eelco Rohling Iain Stewart Stathis Stiros John Thornes Chronis Tzedakis John Wainwright Pratiyogita Darpan ,2009-06 Pratiyogita Darpan monthly magazine is India s largest read General Knowledge and Current Affairs Magazine Pratiyogita Darpan English monthly magazine is known for quality content on General Knowledge and Current Affairs Topics ranging from national and international news issues personality development interviews of examination toppers articles write up on topics like career economy history public administration geography polity social environment scientific legal etc solved papers of various examinations Essay and debate contest Quiz and knowledge testing features are covered every month in this magazine Subject Index to Periodicals ,2009

Macroeconomic Performance in a Globalising Economy Robert Anderton, Geoff Kenny, 2010-11-25 The process of globalisation has been ongoing for centuries but few would doubt that it has accelerated and intensified in recent decades This acceleration is evidenced as much by the strong synchronicity in the rapid transmission of financial crises starting in late 2007 as it is by the decade of almost unprecedented growth in international trade and financial market liberalisation that preceded it This book shows how the international economy has become more connected via increased production trade capital flows and financial linkages Using a variety of methodologies including both panel econometrics and DSGE modelling a team of experts from academia central banks and the IMF examine how this increased globalisation has affected competitiveness productivity inflation and the labour market This timely contribution to the globalisation literature provides a longer term perspective while also evaluating some of the potential implications for policy makers particularly from a European perspective 2024-25 IAS All States PSC General Studies Indian & World Geography Solved Papers YCT Expert Team, 2024 25 IAS All States PSC General Studies Indian World Geography Solved Papers 400 695 E This book contains 380 sets solved papers and 4476 objective questions
