Sub-Saharan Africa Report, 1982 Twenty Years of Education Transformation in Gauteng 1994 to 2014 Maringe, Felix, Prew, Martin, 2015-05-05 Twenty Years of Education Transformation in Gauteng 1994 to 2014 An Independent Review presents a collection of 15 important essays on different aspects of education in Gauteng since the advent of democracy in 1994 These essays talk to what a provincial education department does and how and why it does these things whether it be about policy resourcing or implementing projects Each essay is written by one or more specialist in the relevant focus area The book is written to be accessible to the general reader as well as being informative and an essential resource for the specialist reader It sheds light on aspects of how a provincial department operates and why and with what consequences certain decisions have been made in education over the last 20 turbulent years both nationally and provincially There has been no attempt to fit the book's chapters into a particular ideological or educational paradigm and as a result the reader will find differing views on various aspects of the Gauteng Department of Education's present and past We leave the reader to decide to what extent the GDE has fulfilled its educational mandate over the last 20 years South African Pressclips, 1991 ICT Education Richard J. Barnett, Daniel B. le Roux, Douglas A. Parry, Bruce W. Watson, 2022-12-07 This book constitutes the refereed proceedings of the 51st Annual Conference of the Southern African Computer Lecturers Association SACLA 2022 held in Cape Town South Africa during July 21-22 2022 The 10 full papers were included in this book were carefully reviewed and selected from 31 submissions They were organized in topical sections as follows curriculum assessment teaching in context innovative teaching and pandemic pedagogy Holographic Interferometry Pramod K. Rastogi, 2013-04-17 Holographic Interferometry provides a valuable and up to date source of information in the rapidly expanding field The eight specialists' contributions cover the principles and methods currently in use The scope of the book has been limited to the study of opaque object and ample space has been devoted to a comprehensive treatment of the phenomena of fringe formation with a particular emphasis on the quantitative evaluation of the holographic interference fringe patterns The emergence of computer aided fringe analysis and phase shifting techniques have simplified considerably the quantitative real time measurements of object shapes and deformations The last two chapters provide a reasonably detailed overview of full field holographic methods for the measurement of shapes displacements derivatives difference displacements and vibrations South Africa News Update, 1994 Consists of reproductions of articles from South African newspapers Education and Migration Julian Culp, Danielle Zwarthoed, 2020-11-25 This collected volume addresses issues pertaining to education and migration from a variety of philosophical and ethical perspectives It is high time to critically analyze ethical issues in education under conditions of globalization not only because migration and globalization are topical issues but also because dominant academic approaches in the ethics and political philosophy of education have a tendency to narrow their focus on the education of sedentary citizens However many learners and educators experience high levels of both voluntary and constrained mobility The contributions to Education and Migration address issues pertaining to migration related education from a variety of ethical and philosophical perspectives including analytic applied ethics continental philosophy care ethics Hegelian philosophy the capability approach and theories of distributive justice Distinguished scholars as well as younger researchers from a variety of disciplines educational scholars lawyers philosophers psychologists and sociologists tackle in these eight essays core issues in the ethics and political philosophy of education such as citizenship education or justice in access to education from a perspective that takes human mobilities into account The collection puts a special emphasis on the diversity of migratory experiences on the significance of education for citizens and non citizen migrants long term residents and undocumented children immigrants and return migrants This book was originally published as a special issue of Journal of Global Ethics

Homeschooling High School Shirley Erwee, 2014-08-28 Prospective homeschoolers are parents looking for an alternative to the mainstream educational system for their offspring But homeschooling children at high school level strikes fear into even the most dedicated of homeschoolers They need information and answers to their questions And with the current educational and unemployment problems in South Africa young people need clear direction and guidance to help them achieve their goals In addition to exploring the popular ways to gaining a recognised matric certificate outside the formal school system Homeschooling High School also challenges readers to rethink their values particularly the value they place on certification and to consider some unconventional or alternative paths to success In a clearly presented format the book includes advice on legal matters identifying appropriate courses sourcing study material tips on entrepreneurship financing tertiary studies and the testimonies of successful homeschooled graduates Homeschooling High School is a comprehensive guide to plotting a path through high school and beyond

You and Your Rights, 1992

Kgalema Motlanthe Ebrahim Harvey, 2012 Presenting a superb account of a man characterized by his reticence this biography offers rare and thorough insight into the life of one of South Africa's most powerful men Kgalema Motlanthe From Motlanthe's ancestral family to his political awakenings as he discovered the African National Congress this account traces Motlanthe's political path to becoming the third president of the Republic of South Africa With impeccable timing and a real sense of history this book contains wide ranging interviews with Motlanthe himself as well as with family members friends comrades and leading figures in political organizations civil society academia and the media Unsparing in its scope detailed in its revelations and rigorously critical in its analysis this biography reveals not only the complex politician but also the very human nature of the man
