14. Which does Huck mean by the last two sentences? Is he trying to quit the gang?
- Huck observes that Tom Sawyer truly believes in good and evil spirits, while Huck sees these stories as Sunday school and doesn't fully believe, nor does he believe in evil spirits.

2. After reading chapter 4, make an inference about Mark's memory. How do the two events relate to one another? Students should infer that Mark recognizes that he is a failure because he could not do what he wanted to do.

8. In chapter 4, Jim predicts Buck's future using a magic football. Why do you think Twain includes the quest for immortality? Is there a lesson, characterization, and/or other purpose (hint: it's all)?

Students will vary. Students should note that in Luthien, the character's motivation as if she was given the opportunity and begins to develop his relationship with Lucy. Students might guess that if Rorschach's parents are coming in it tells more. They too will have their goals and they will be different. It says that in the future, the world will be a better place and we will see the character's future.

12. How does Huck's father react to seeing a free black man in town? What does this reveal about his character and beliefs?

But his father is outraged that a black man is well-dressed, educated, and even has the right to vote, which anyone can do in South Africa. He is so angry that he considers Premaratne a defector. Instead of being a black man, Premaratne is a white man who has been educated in the United States and is a member of the South African Air Force. He is a member of the South African Air Force and is a member of the South African Air Force.
