Ford Motor Company's Recall of Certain Firestone Tires United States. Congress. House. Committee on Energy and Commerce. Subcommittee on Commerce, Trade, and Consumer Protection, 2001 Firestone Tire Recall United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Commerce, Science, and Transportation, 2003 Responding to Crisis Dan Pyle Millar, Robert L. Heath, 2003-12-08 In recent years researchers and practitioners have explored the nature theory and best practices that are required for effective and ethical crisis preparation and response The consequences of being unprepared to respond quickly appropriately and ethically to a crisis are dramatic and well documented For this reason crisis consulting and the development of crisis response plans and protocols have become more than a cottage industry Taking a rhetorical view of crisis events and utterances this book is devoted to adding new insights to the discussion and to describing a rhetorical approach to crisis communication To help set the tone for that description the opening chapter reviews a rhetorical perspective on organizational crisis As such it raises questions and provokes issues more than it addresses and answers them definitively The other chapters can be viewed as a series of experts participating in a panel discussion The challenge to each of the authors is to add depth and breadth of understanding to the analysis of the rhetorical implications of a crisis as well as to the strategies that can be used ethically and responsibly Central to this analysis is the theoretic perspective that crisis response requires rhetorically tailored statements that satisfactorily address the narratives surrounding the crisis which are used by interested parties to define and judge it This volume will be of value to scholars and students interested in crisis communication and is certain to influence future work and research on responding to crises In The Court of Public Opinion James F. Haggerty, 2004-06-28 A practical guide to winning the public relations war in business In The Court of Public Opinion is a lively and practical guide for anyone involved in high stakes litigation Given the increasingly litigious media saturated business environment companies and high profile individuals need protection not just in the courthouses but in the court of public opinion Using examples from many of the most famous cases in the past several years In The Court of Public Opinion contains real life strategies that CEOs lawyers and other executives can use when they find themselves in a high profile lawsuit James F Haggerty one of the nation s leading attorney PR pros offers advice on public relations strategies that will help businesses and individuals save their reputations as well as their livelihood James F Haggerty New York NY is an attorney and CEO of the PR Consulting Group in New York He has been working with legal and litigation issues for more than fifteen years and has been involved in many high profile legal disputes including the Ronald Perelman Patricia Duff divorce and the Screen Actors Guild strike against the advertising industry His writing on communications issues has appeared in The New York Times the National Law Journal and PR Week Corporate Crime Under Attack Francis T. Cullen, Gray Cavender, William J. Maakestad, Michael L. Benson, 2014-09-25 In exploring the criminalization of corporations this book uses the landmark Ford Pinto case as a centerpiece for exploring corporate violence and the long effort to bring twenty five years Leonard Fuld has been developing groundbreaking ways for managers to stay two steps ahead of the competition providing effective ways of finding out about pricing new product rollouts strategic alliances outsourcing and cost of operations In The Secret Language of Competitive Intelligence he shows how to take data that is widely available to everyone think critically about it and convert it into highly refined intelligence that leads to effective market based decisions
