The Politics of Consumer Credit in the UK, 1938-1992 Stuart Aveyard,Paul Corthorn,Sean O'Connell,2018-08-30 As early as the 1930s Britain had a highly innovative and profitable mortgage sector that promoted a major extension in home ownership These controversial and risky offerings had an equivalent in numerous hire purchase agreements with which new homes were furnished Such developments were forerunners of the easy credit regime more commonly associated with the 1980s Taking a long term perspective on this issue indicates that Britain s departure from European models of consumer credit markets was not simply a by product of neoliberalism s influence on the Thatcher administration and this book offers a much fuller explanation to the phenomenon It explores debates within and between the major political parties reveals the infighting amongst civil service departments over management of consumer demand charts the varying degrees of influence wielded by the Bank of England and finance capital as opposed to that of consumer durable manufacturers reviews the perspectives of consumers and their representatives and explains the role of contingency and path dependency in these historical events The central focus of this book is on consumer credit but this subject provides a case study through which to explore numerous other important areas of British history These include debates on the issues of post war consensus the impact of rising home ownership and its impact on consumer credit and personal finance markets the management of consumer society political responses to affluence the development of consumer protection policy and the influence of neoliberalism

Fixed John Y. Campbell,Tarun Ramadorai,2025-10-21 Two leading economists reveal why today s personal finance markets are rigged against us and offer practical steps to fix them We interact with the financial system every day whether taking out or paying off loans making insurance claims or simply depositing money into our bank accounts Fixed exposes how this system has been corrupted to serve the interests of financial services providers and their cleverest customers at the expense of ordinary people John Campbell and Tarun Ramadorai diagnose the ills of today s personal finance markets in the United States and across the globe looking at everything from short term saving and borrowing to loans for education and housing financial products for retirement and insurance They show how the system is fixed to benefit those who are wealthy and more educated while encouraging financial mistakes by those who are aren t making it difficult for regular consumers to make sound financial decisions and disadvantaging them in some of the most consequential economic transactions of their lives Campbell and Ramadorai describe how some even opt out of the financial system altogether relying on unregulated and often shady mechanisms to implement necessary financial functions with dire consequences for individuals families and the economy more broadly With the explosive growth of the global middle class longer lifespans and greater numbers of seniors managing their money alone the pitfalls of personal finance now affect billions of people around the world Fixed proposes concrete solutions that harness the expertise of economists the power of government and the speed of technology to restore fairness and trust in our broken system and make it work better for ordinary people EBOOK: Contemporary Management - MEE, 2e JONES,2017-08-02
