The Death of "Why?" Andrea Batista Schlesinger, 2009-07-13 Obsessed with answers we have lost sight of the power and value of questions Debates over globalization climate change health care and poverty will not be solved with simple answers but that's what Americans are being trained to expect Andrea Batista Schlesinger argues that we're besieged by cultural forces that urge us to avoid critical thinking and independent analysis The media reduces politics to a spectator sport standardized tests teach students to fill in the dots instead of opening their minds and even the Internet promotes habits that discourage looking deeper But the situation isn't hopeless Schlesinger profiles individuals and institutions renewing the practice of inquiry particularly in America's youth at a time when our society demands such activity from us all Our resilience will depend on our ability to struggle with what we don't know to live and think outside comfortable bubbles of sameness and ultimately to ask questions
