

Edgar Allan Poe

A detailed illustration of a treasure map. The map is drawn on a piece of parchment or old paper, showing a rugged, mountainous landscape. A large, dark, winding path or river cuts through the terrain. In the upper left corner, there is a skull and crossbones symbol, indicating a grave or a dangerous location. The map is surrounded by a dark, textured border, possibly representing the ground or a cave entrance. The overall tone is mysterious and adventurous.
