Hunter Seat Equitation George H. Morris, 1971 B W photographs throughout Unrelenting George H Morris, 2016-05-01 If there is one name in the American equestrian story that everyone knows it is George Morris A horse lover rider carouser competitor taskmaster dreamer teacher and visionary George Morris has been ever present on the rarified stage of the international riding elite for most of the 70 years he's been in the saddle He has represented our country as an athlete and a coach and at one time or another instructed many of our nation's best horsemen and women His carefully chosen perfectly enunciated words are notoriously powerful They can raise you up or cut you to the quick His approval can be a rainmaker his derision can end a career But as much as people know and respect or perhaps fear the public face of George Morris he has lived in other ways a remarkably private life keeping his own personal struggles with insecurity with ambition and with love behind closed doors It is only now that he has chosen in his own words to share the totality of his life the very public and the incredibly private with the world This engrossing autobiography the real story of the godlike George Morris beautifully demonstrates his ultimate humanity The Finer Points of Riding, Training, and Horsemanship George H. Morris, 2019 Grooming Horses, Sandsablaze Kimberly Gatto, 2014-07-08 The Thoroughbred horse Sandsablaze made history in the 1970s achieving numerous victories with his young owner and rider William Buddy Brown of New York Despite being deemed awkward in his early years Sandsablaze began his journey to the top of the sport with a win at the AHSA Medal Finals at Harrisburg the pinnacle of success in the junior equitation ranks In an accomplishment that has yet to be duplicated Sandsablaze with Brown in the saddle went on to win at the Grand Prix level and represented the United States at the Olympics Some of his other key victories occurred at New York's National Horse Show and the Washington International Horse Show as well as abroad Nearly thirty five years after his death Sandsablaze remains a legend in the sport Join equestrian author Kimberly Gatto as she tells this remarkable story of partnership and success Backyard Horsekeeping Joan Fry, 2007-05-01 Experienced backyard horsekeeper Joan Fry leads the prospective horse owner through the process of assessing suitable land choosing a veterinarian and farrier constructing and furnishing a small barn paddock and arena purchasing a horse and feeding and care Of special value to both novice and experienced owners are the sections on feed which take into account the most up to date nutrition research and training the horse for safe and enjoyable trail riding Written with encouraging cheer and plenty of horse sense Backyard Horsekeeping leads the way to maintaining and enjoying your own horse on your own property Judging Hunters and Hunter Seat Equitation Anna Jane White-Mullin, 2022-04-15 Your key to success in the hunter and equitation ring from one of the sport's classic judges and competitors completely revised for today's rider. Revised and updated with the most current USEF rules and tests. Judging Hunters and Hunter Seat Equitation by Maclay winner and former R judge Anna Jane White Mullin is the world's favorite book on how to judge hunter show competitions and understand exactly how they are judged. This must-have resource gives anyone competing in or judging hunter or equitation classes the edge with professionally reviewed and approved sections that examine Conformation, structural composition, physical defects versus blemishes, Hunters Under Saddle and Over Fences, length of stride, frame and straightness, rhythm, transitions, impulsion and bending, locomotion and form faults, honest and dishonest horses, Equitation on the Flat and Over Fences, rider position, cadence, collection and lengthening, approaching fences and in the air, USEF tests. Written with both the aspiring judge and the avid competitor in mind, the book offers invaluable explanations of what judges look for as well as the training methods necessary to accomplish the desired results. More than 100 color photographs with top equestrians in the tack demonstrate correct and incorrect positions in both horses and riders, sharpening the reader's eyes while also providing an unparalleled foundation of knowledge that makes self-correction in the saddle possible. In addition, readers will find a primer on both understanding and completing the Judge's Card with explanations of numerical scoring, terminology, abbreviations, symbols, comments and general impressions. This remarkably complete two-in-one reference can be the difference in your success whether in the ring or in the judge's box.

Catch Rider Jennifer H. Lyne, 2013 Despite her poor background and ferocious competition from more privileged girls, fourteen-year-old Sid pursues her dream of becoming a catch rider, a show rider who can ride anything with help from her Uncle Wayne. The Liminal Horse Rena Maguire, Anastasija Ropa, 2021-12-31 The historical horse is at once material and abstract as is the notion of the border. Borders and frontiers are not only markers delineating geographical spaces but also mental constructs; there are borders between order and disorder, between what is permitted and what is prohibited. Boundaries and liminal spaces also exist in the material, economic, political, moral, legal and religious spheres. In this volume, the contributing authors explore the theme of the liminality of the horse in all of these historical arenas, asking how does one reconcile the very different roles played by the horse in human history.
