

Sample Formal Information Letter

Dear Parent,

This year, as an enrichment opportunity through the SAGE program, Woodside School's fourth and fifth graders will have the opportunity to participate in the National Geographic Bee, between November 23 and January 13. This is a nationwide contest for schools in the United States. There are three levels of competition: school, state, and national. The winning student at Woodside must take a written, multiple choice "Qualifying Test," in order to compete for advancement to the state level. (The first place winner at the state level will proceed to the national level.) Questions will require knowledge of place names or of the location of cultural and physical features.

Students may be asked about cultural and physical regions or about physical phenomena, such as landforms, climate, bodies of water, soils, flora, and fauna. Tools geographers use, such as maps, instruments, graphs, and statistics, may be the subject of other questions.

Have fun!!!

Mrs. Wolf

Furnishing the Mind Jesse J. Prinz,2004-08-20 Western philosophy has long been divided between empiricists who argue that human understanding has its basis in experience and rationalists who argue that reason is the source of knowledge A central issue in the debate is the nature of concepts the internal representations we use to think about the world The traditional empiricist thesis that concepts are built up from sensory input has fallen out of favor Mainstream cognitive science tends to echo the rationalist tradition with its emphasis on innateness In Furnishing the Mind Jesse Prinz attempts to swing the pendulum back toward empiricism Prinz provides a critical survey of leading theories of concepts including imagism definitionism prototype theory exemplar theory the theory theory and informational atomism He sets forth a new defense of concept empiricism that draws on philosophy neuroscience and psychology and introduces a new version of concept empiricism called proxytype theory He also provides accounts of abstract concepts intentionality narrow content and concept combination In an extended discussion of innateness he covers Noam Chomsky s arguments for the innateness of
