Clandestine Erotic Fiction in English 1800-1930 Peter Mendes, 2016-12-05 This work offers bibliographical descriptions of all printings of erotic fiction in English issued clandestinely during the period 1800-1930. By clandestine is meant books whose publishers and printers attempt to hide their identities usually by offering title pages whose misleading places and dates of publication may shock and amuse but which always aim to mystify. Using internal and external evidence an attempt is made to establish who were the printers, booksellers and publishers. English and Continental involved in this trade. The printing families or groups into which a large percentage of the material falls are classified and accompanied by illustrations which identify the main printing characteristics. House styles of the groups. Bibliographical descriptions follow a checklist of clandestine catalogues. These provide valuable evidence for dating, pricing and sales pitch and information on items of which no copies can now be traced. The work concludes with a series of appendices which provide significant external evidence and three indexes of themes, titles and names. Peter Mendes' original research builds on and significantly extends the essential pioneer work of the Victorian collector and bibliographer H. S. Ashbee. Pisanus Fraxi

The edited collection focuses on the links between young people and African popular culture. It explores popular culture produced and consumed by young people in contemporary Africa. And by culture we mean all kinds of texts or representations: visual, oral, written, performative, fictional, social and virtual created by African youth mostly about their lives and their immediate societies and for themselves but also consumed by the larger public and shared locally and globally. We proceed from the premise that cultural texts not only function as social facts as Karin Barber argues but that they double as commentaries upon and interpretations of social facts. They are part of social reality but they also take up an attitude to social reality. 2007. 04. So the work focuses specifically on what African youth produce as popular culture under what conditions or contexts they produce such work how they produce those texts why they produce them the aesthetic dimensions of these texts as cultural artifacts and why these textual practices matter as social facts as interpretive acts and as cultural symbols of the general cultural activism of young people in a rapidly changing world a world where the global cultural economy is the prime terrain for the relentless struggles over the meanings that come to shape political economic and social systems American Short-horn Herd Book, Containing Pedigrees of Short-horn Cattle American Short-horn Breeders' Association,1914 Collected Books ALLEN OSB;AHEARN AHEARN (PATRICIA.),Patricia Ahearn,2013-02 An introduction to and advice on book collecting with a glossary of terms and tips on how to identify first editions and estimated values for over 20 000 collectible books published in English including translations over the last three centuries about half are literary titles in the broadest sense novels poetry plays mysteries science fiction and children s books and the other half are non fiction Americana travel and exploration finance cookbooks color plate medicine science photography Mormonism sports et al The English Catalogue of Books ,1864 Vols 1898 include a directory of publishers A Select Collection of Old English Plays; In fifteen volumes Robert Dodsley,2025-09-01 Reproduction of the original The Antigonos publishing house specialises in the publication of reprints of historical books We make sure that these works are made available to the public in good condition in order to preserve their cultural heritage
