Mariage De Raison Le

Patricia Mainardi

Mariage De Raison Le:

Husbands, Wives, and Lovers Patricia Mainardi, 2003-01-01 In this interdisciplinary exploration of the cultural and social history of early 19th century France Patricia Mainardi focuses on what was considered a major social problem of the time adultery In a period when expectations about marriage were changing the problems of husbands wives and lovers became a major theme in theatre literature and the visual arts The author demonstrates that this intense interest was historically grounded in the post revolutionary collision between the new concept of the individual s right to happiness and the traditional prerogatives of family and state duty or happiness more important Are arranged marriages doomed to be empty of love and poisoned by adultery Should adulterous wives and their lovers be punished while husbands may commit adultery with impunity Out of such legal social and cultural debates ultimately emerged modern bourgeois family values Mainardi argues And she illuminates how art in all its varieties both influences and is influenced by social change

Encyclopedia of French Film Directors Philippe Rège, 2009-12-11 Cinema has been long associated with France dating back to 1895 when Louis and Auguste Lumi_re screened their works the first public viewing of films anywhere Early silent pioneers Georges Méliès Alice Guy Blaché and others followed in the footsteps of the Lumi_re brothers and the tradition of important filmmaking continued throughout the 20th century and beyond In Encyclopedia of French Film Directors Philippe Rège identifies every French director who has made at least one feature film since 1895 From undisputed masters to obscure one timers nearly 3 000 directors are cited here including at least 200 filmmakers not mentioned in similar books published in France Each director s entry contains a brief biographical summary including dates and places of birth and death information on the individual s education and professional training and other pertinent details such as real names when the filmmaker uses a pseudonym The entries also provide complete filmographies including credits for feature films shorts documentaries and television work Some of the most important names in the history of film can be found in this encyclopedia from masters of the Golden Age_Jean Renoir and René Clair_to French New Wave artists such as François Truffaut and Jean Luc Godard domaine de l'enseignement de langues étrangères The Amorous Restoration Andrew J. Counter, 2016 When Louis XVIII returned to the throne in 1814 and again in 1815 France embarked upon a period of uneasy cohabitation between the old and the new The writers of the age who included Chateaubriand Stendhal Balzac and Mme de Duras agreed that they lived at a historical turning point a transitional moment whose outcome though still uncertain would transform the French way of life beginning with the French way of love The literary works of the Bourbon Restoration ceaselessly return to the themes of love sex and marriage partly as vital cultural questions in their own right but also as a means of critiquing the deficiencies of past regimes negotiating the politics of the present and imagining the shape of the political future In the literature of the Restoration love and politics become entwined in a mutually metaphorical embrace The Amorous Restoration the first book in English devoted to literary and cultural life under the last Bourbon kings considers this relationship in all its richness and many contradictions Long neglected as a drab historical backwater the Restoration emerges here as a vibrant era one rife with sharp cultural and political disagreements and possessed of an especially refined sense of allusion discretion and even humour Drawing on literature journalism political writing life writing and gossip The Amorous Restoration vividly recreates the erotic sensibilities of a pivotal moment in the transition from an amorous old regime to erotic and political modernity
