Meaning-Focused Materials for Language Learning Marina Bouckaert, Monique Konings, Marjon van Winkelhof, 2019-01-10 This publication is a result of the joint conference held by MATSDA and Fontys University of Applied Sciences the Netherlands in Tilburg in June 2017 MATSDA is an international materials development association founded in 1993 which serves to bring together researchers teachers materials developers and publishers in an effort to improve the effectiveness of language learning materials The 2017 conference centred on issues related to the development of meaning focused materials for language learning and attracted presenters from twenty five countries stretching from Greenland to Brazil These issues are reflected in the chapters in this volume with each one focusing on a different aspect of meaning focused materials and many of them introducing the reader to previously unexplored facets of the theory of meaning focused instruction and its application to materials development The contributions here are of essential value to post graduate students to teachers to materials developers and to researchers They are written to be academically rigorous but at the same time accessible to newcomers to the field and to experienced experts alike

Commonwealth Universities Yearbook, 1994 The administration of examinations for 15-19 year olds in England Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Education Committee, 2012-07-03 This report from the Education Committee looks at the administration of examinations for 15 19 year olds in England The Committee expresses serious concerns about incentives in the exam system and about competition on syllabus content Incentives in the system should be changed so the downward pressure through the competition of exam boards is mitigated The Committee considers a number of options to change incentives including i A single board This offers a simpler system with no risk of competition but the Committee believes the cost risk and disruption outweigh the benefits ii Franchising of subjects to exam boards This removes syllabus competition but again has downsides 3 Or the current system of multiple boards The Committee sees no benefit in competition on syllabus content but the setting and marking of exams and associated administration if properly regulated could generate incentives and drive quality up offering value for money to schools and colleges The Committee also recommends the development of national syllabuses accredited by Ofqual The syllabuses would be developed by exam boards in conjunction with learned bodies and employer organisations and could therefore retain the benefits of competition on quality and the incentive for exam boards to innovate
