Modernists at Odds Matthew J. Kochis, Heather L. Lusty, 2020-05-12 A long overdue extended comparison of two of the most compelling writers of the twentieth century

The Novel: An Alternative History Steven Moore, 2013-09-17 Encyclopedic in scope and heroically audacious The Novel An Alternative History is the first attempt in over a century to tell the complete story of our most popular literary form Contrary to conventional wisdom the novel did not originate in 18th century England nor even with Don Quixote but is coeval with civilization itself After a pugnacious introduction in which Moore defends innovative demanding novelists against their conservative critics the book relaxes into a world tour of the pre modern novel beginning in ancient Egypt and ending in 16th century China with many exotic ports of call Greek romances Roman satires medieval Sanskrit novels narrated by parrots Byzantine erotic thrillers 5000 page Arabian adventure novels Icelandic sagas delicate Persian novels in verse Japanese war stories even Mayan graphic novels Throughout Moore celebrates the innovators in fiction tracing a continuum between these pre modern experimentalists and their postmodern progeny Irreverent iconoclastic informative entertaining The Novel An Alternative History is a landmark in literary criticism that will encourage readers to rethink the novel

Christian and medieval practice of spiritual marriage in which husband and wife mutually and voluntarily relinquish sexual activity for reasons of piety plays an important role in the development of the institution of marriage and in the understanding of female religiosity Drawing on hagiography chronicles theology canon law and pastoral sources Dyan Elliott traces the history of spiritual marriage in the West from apostolic times to the beginning of the sixteenth century

Religion, Gender, and Wellbeing in Africa Chammah J. Kaunda,2021-05-11 Religion Gender and Wellbeing in Africa argues that in many African societies ideas and practices of wellbeing and gender relations continue to be informed and shaped by religious epistemologies The contributors affirm that for many Africans it is through religio spiritual frameworks that daily experiences interactions and gender relations are understood and interpreted However for many African women religions have functioned as a double edged sword Although they have contributed to the struggle against issues such as colonialism gender justice climate justice and human rights they have also endorsed and perpetuated sexism heterosexism homophobia and the denial of human rights for a wide variety of people on the margins The chapters within this collection demonstrate that most religions and religious formations in Africa have not yet positioned themselves as forces for wellbeing gender justice and security for African women and children The contributors challenge simplistic and superficial readings and interpretations of religio spirituality in Africa and call for deeper engagements of the interplay between Africa s religio spiritual realities and the wellbeing of women particularly around issues of gender justice reproductive health and human rights

Essays on Ancient Greek Literature and Culture: Volume 2, Comedy, Herodotus, Hellenistic and Imperial Greek Poetry, the Novels Ewen Bowie,2023-07-27 In this book one of the world s leading Hellenists brings together his many contributions over four decades to our understanding of major genres of Greek literature above all the Greek novel but also Attic Comedy fifth century historiography and Hellenistic and Imperial Greek poetry Many are already essential reading such as the chapter on the figure of Lycidas in Theocritus Idyll 7 or two chapters on the ancient readership of Greek novels Discussions of Imperial Greek poetry published three decades ago opened up a world almost entirely neglected by scholars Several chapters address literary and linguistic issues in Longus novel Daphnis and Chloe complementing the author s commentary published in 2019 two contribute to a better understanding of the enigmatic Aethiopica of Heliodorus and many explore important questions arising from examination of the form of the Greek novel as a whole This is the second of a planned three volume collection

Courtesy Lost Kristina Marie Olson,2014-11-05 In Courtesy Lost Kristina M Olson analyses the literary impact of the social political and economic transformations of the fourteenth century through an exploration of Dante s literary and political influence on Boccaccio The book reveals how Boccaccio rewrote the past through the lens of the Commedia torn between nostalgia for elite families in decline and the need to promote morality and magnanimity within the Florentine Republic By examining the passages in Boccaccio s Decameron Decasibus and Esposizioni in which the author rewrites moments in Florentine and Italian history that had also appeared in Dante s Commedia Olson illuminates the ways in which Boccaccio expressed his deep ambivalence towards the political and social changes of his era She illustrates this through an analysis of Dante s and Boccaccio s treatments of the idea of courtesy or cortesia in an era when the chivalry of the declining aristocracy was being supplanted by the civility of the rising merchant classes

Food Words Peter Jackson,2013-06-27 Food Words is a series of provocative essays on some of the most important keywords in the emergent field of food studies focusing on current controversies and on going debates Words like choice and convenience are often used as explanatory terms in understanding consumer behavior but are clearly ideological in the way they reflect particular positions and serve specific interests while words like taste and value are no less complex and contested Inspired by Raymond Williams Food Words traces the multiple meanings of each of our keywords tracking nuances in different academic commercial and policy contexts Mapping the dynamic meanings of each term the book moves forward from critical assessment to active intervention an attitude that is reflected in the lively sometimes combative style of the essays Each essay is research based and fully referenced but accessible to the general reader With a foreword by eminent food scholar Warren Belasco Professor of American Studies at the University of Maryland Baltimore County and written by an inter disciplinary team associated with the CONANX research project Consumer culture in an age of anxiety Food Words will be essential reading for food scholars across the arts humanities and social sciences Metaphor and the

Ancient Novel S. J. Harrison, Michael Paschalis, Stavros A. Frangoulidis, 2005 This thematic fourth Supplementum to Ancient Narrative entitled Metaphor and the Ancient Novel is a collection of revised versions of papers originally read at the Second Rethymnon International Conference on the Ancient Novel RICAN 2 under the same title held at the University of Crete Rethymnon on May 19 20 2003 Though research into metaphor has reached staggering proportions over the past twenty five years this is the first volume dedicated entirely to the subject of metaphor in relation to the ancient novel Not every contributor takes into account theoretical discussions of metaphor but the usefulness of every single paper lies in the fact that they explore actual texts while sometimes theorists tend to work out of context Libertinage in Russian Culture and Literature Alexei Lalo, 2011-09-09 Much of the previous scholarship on Russia s literary discourses of sexuality and eroticism in the Silver Age was built on applying European theoretical models from psychoanalysis to feminist theory to Russia s modernization This book argues that at the turn into the twentieth century Russian popular culture for the first time found itself in direct confrontation with the traditional high cultures of the upper classes and intelligentsia producing modernized representations of sexuality This Russian tradition of conflicted representations heretofore misassessed by literary history emerges as what Foucault would call a full blown bio history of Russian culture a history of indigenous representations of sexuality and the eroticized body capable of innovation on its own terms not just those derivative from Europe Seducing the Demon Huntress Victoria Davies, 2013-06-03 Kerilyn is nearly the last of her demon hunter family her parents and siblings killed by the creatures they resolved to destroy Alone on Halloween the one night spirits and demons escape the Netherworld to wreak havoc on the mortal world Kerilyn tries to stay safe at home protected by spells and weapons But one spirit is waiting for her right outside her gate Arawn Lord of the Spirits Arawn has visited her every year determined to seduce her Though Kerilyn tries to resist her forbidden attraction to him he vows to win her by dawn and draws her into a sensual dream world that tempts her to drop her barriers and indulge in his touch But Kerilyn still believes Arawn is her enemy especially when his brother the Lord of the Demons kidnaps her niece To get her back Kerilyn will have to risk abandoning her defenses and trust Arawn completely 26 000 words
