

The background of the entire graphic is a reproduction of Franz Marc's painting 'Blue Horse' (1911). It depicts a blue horse galloping across a landscape of vibrant, non-naturalistic colors like yellow, green, and red. The style is characteristic of Die Blaue Reiter movement, with bold colors and a sense of dynamic movement.

The Private Collector's Museum Georgina Walker, 2019-05-17 The Private Collector's Museum connects the rising popularity of private museums with evolving models of collecting and philanthropy and new inter relationships between private and public space It examines how contemporary collectors construct museums to frame themselves as cultural arbiters of global distinction By exploring a range of in depth contemporary case studies the book aims for a more complex understanding of the private collector's museum assessing how it is realised funded and understood in a broader cultural context It examines the ways in which this particular museum model has evolved within a historical Western tradition of collecting and museum building and considers how private museums will endure alongside their public counterparts It also sheds light on the shifting patterns of collecting such as the transition of personal art collections into the public sphere The developments are situated within the wider context of private public engagement in general Providing a new analysis of philanthropy public access and the museum The Private Collector's Museum is essential reading for scholars and students interested in the private museum and key reading for those interested in related issues

The Twentieth Century German Art Exhibition Lucy Wasensteiner, 2018-10-09 This book represents the first study dedicated to Twentieth Century German Art the 1938 London exhibition that was the largest international response to the cultural policies of National Socialist Germany and the infamous Munich exhibition Degenerate Art Provenance research into the catalogued exhibits has enabled a full reconstruction of the show for the first time its contents and form its contributors and their motivations and its impact both in Britain and internationally Presenting the research via six case study exhibits the book sheds new light on the exhibition and reveals it as one of the largest migr projects of the period which drew contributions from scores of German migr collectors dealers art critics and from the degenerate artists themselves The book explores the show's potency as an anti Nazi statement which prompted a direct reaction from Hitler himself

The Aesthetics of Matter Sarah Posman, Anne Reverseau, David Ayers, Sascha Bru, Benedikt Hjärtarson, 2013-10-29 It has often been argued that the arrival of the early 20th century avant gardes and modernisms coincided with an in depth exploration of the materiality of art and writing The European historical avant gardes and modernisms excelled in their attempts to establish the specificity of media and art forms as well as in experimenting with the hybridity of the materials of their multiple disciplines This third volume of the series European Avant Garde and Modernism Studies sheds light on the full range and import of this aspect in avant garde and modernist aesthetics across all art forms and throughout the 19th and 20th centuries The book's contributions written by experts from some 20 countries seek to answer the following questions What sort of objects and material works and media help us to properly grasp the avant garde and modernist aesthetics of matter How were affects emotions and sensory and bodily experiences transferred and transformed in the experiment with matter How were immaterial things such as concepts of time changed in this aesthetic moment What material meanings were disseminated in the cultural transfer and translation of objects How did subsequent avant gardes deal with the aesthetics of matter in their response to historical predecessors
