British Columbia's Borders in Globalization Nicole Bates-Eamer, Helga Kristín Hallgrímsdóttir, 2021-11-24 This book is a case study collection examining the influences and functions of British Columbia's BC borders in the 21st century British Columbia's Borders in Globalization examines bordering processes and the causes and effects of borders in the Cascadian region from the perspective of BC The chapters cover diverse topics including historical border disputes and cannabis culture and identity the governance of transboundary water flows migration and preclearance policies for goods and people and the emerging issue of online communities The case studies provide examples that highlight the simultaneous but contradictory trends regarding borders in BC while boundaries and bordering processes at the external borders shift away from the territorial boundary lines self determination local politics and cultural identities re inscribe internal boundaries and borders that are both virtual and real Moreover economic protectionism racial discourses and xenophobic narratives driven by advances in technology reinforce the territorial dimensions of borders These case studies contribute to the literature challenging the notion that territorial borders are sufficient for understanding how borders function in BC and in a few instances they illustrate the nuanced ways in which borders or bordering processes are becoming detached from territory The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Borderlands Studies The Machinery of School Internationalisation in Action Laura C. Engel, Claire Maxwell, Miri Yemini, 2019-10-21 Drawing on scholarship from the field of internationalisation in higher education and other theoretical influences in education policy comparative education and sociology of education this edited collection offers a much needed extension of discussion and research into the compulsory schooling context In this book established and emerging scholars provide an authoritative set of conceptual tools for researchers in the field of internationalisation of compulsory schooling It provides an overview of the current knowledge base and ways in which future research could engage with gaps in understandings Through detailed case studies of the multiple forms of internationalisation present within schools and schooling systems the volume considers why and how processes of internationalisation are shaping compulsory schooling today This book will offer scholars and educators a clearer more coherent set of conceptual frameworks within which to position their work in sociology of education and international and comparative education helping to develop a more comprehensive understanding of the many ways compulsory schooling is being internationalised and with what consequences Rule Britannia Danny Dorling, 2019-01-15 Things fall apart when empires crumble This time we think things will be different They are not This time we are told we will become great again We will not In this new edition of the hugely successful Rule Britannia Danny Dorling and Sally Tomlinson argue that the vote to leave the EU was the last gasp of the old empire working its way out of the British psyche Fuelled by a misplaced nostalgia the result was driven by a lack of knowledge of Britain's imperial history by a profound anxiety about Britain's status today and by a deeply unrealistic vision of our future The Natural World as a Resource for Learning and Development: From Schoolyards to Wilderness Ming Kuo, Cathy Jordan, 2019-11-04 The Times Index, 2007 Indexes the Times and its supplements Lovejoy's College Guide, 1991 Offers in depth profiles of more than 2500 four year and two year colleges and universities Children's Books in Print R R Bowker Publishing, Bowker, 1999-12 Focus Geography Liz Dilley, 2011
