Geography November 2014:

Vertical Stephen Graham, 2016-11-08 A revolutionary reimagining of the cities we live in the air above us and what goes on in the earth beneath our feet Today we live in a world that can no longer be read as a two dimensional map but must now be understood as a series of vertical strata that reach from the satellites that encircle our planet to the tunnels deep within the ground In Vertical Stephen Graham rewrites the city at every level how the geography of inequality politics and identity is determined in terms of above and below Starting at the edge of earth's atmosphere and in a series of riveting studies descending through each layer Graham explores the world of drones the city from the viewpoint of an aerial bomber the design of sidewalks and the hidden depths of underground bunkers He asks why was Dubai built to be seen from Google Earth How do the super rich in S o Paulo live in their penthouses far above the street Why do London billionaires build vast subterranean basements And how do the technology of elevators and subversive urban explorers shape life on the surface and subsurface of the earth Vertical will make you look at the world around you anew this is a revolution in understanding your place in the world

Understanding Cultural Geography Jon Anderson, 2015-03-24 Understanding Cultural Geography Places and Traces offers a comprehensive introduction to perhaps the most exciting and challenging area of human geography By focusing on the notion of place as a key means through which culture and identity is grounded the book showcases the broad range of theories methods and practices used within the discipline This book not only introduces the reader to the rich and complex history of cultural geography but also the key terms on which the discipline is built From these insights the book approaches place as an ongoing composition of traces highlighting the dynamic and ever changing nature of the world around us The second edition has been fully revised and updated to incorporate recent literature and up to date case studies It also adopts a new seven section structure and benefits from the addition of two new chapters Place and Mobility and Place and Language Through its broad coverage of issues such as age race scale nature capitalism and the body the book provides valuable perspectives into the cultural relationships between people and place Anderson gives critical insights into these important issues helping us to understand and engage with the various places that make up our lives Understanding Cultural Geography is an ideal text for students being introduced to the discipline through either undergraduate or postgraduate degree courses The book outlines how the theoretical ideas empirical foci and methodological techniques of cultural geography illuminate and make sense of the places we inhabit and contribute to This is a timely update on a highly successful text that incorporates a vast foundation of knowledge an invaluable book for lecturers and students

The SIJORI Cross-Border Region Francis E Hutchinson, Terence Chong, 2016-06-14 Twenty five years ago the governments of Singapore Malaysia and Indonesia agreed to jointly promote the city state the state of Johor in Malaysia and the Riau Islands in Indonesia Facilitated by common cultural references a more distant shared history and complementary attributes interactions between the three territories developed quickly Logistics networks have proliferated and production chains link firms based in one location with affiliates or transport facilities in the other territories These cross border links have enabled all three locations to develop their economies and enjoy rising standards of living Initially economic in nature the interactions between Singapore Johor and the Riau Islands have multiplied and grown deeper Today people cross the borders to work go to school or avail of an increasing range of goods and services New political social and cultural phenomena have developed Policymakers in the various territories now need to reconcile economic imperatives and issues of identity and sovereignty Enabled by their proximity and increasing opportunities families have also begun to straddle borders with resulting questions about citizenship and belonging Using the Cross Border Region framework which seeks to analyse these three territories as one entity simultaneously divided and bound together by its borders this book brings together scholars from a range of disciplines Its 18 chapters and more than 20 maps examine the interaction between Singapore Johor and the Riau Islands over the past quarter century and seek to shed light on how these territories could develop in the future

Disability, Avoidance and the Academy David Bolt, Claire Penketh, 2017-07-14 Disability is a widespread phenomenon indeed a potentially universal one as life expectancies rise Within the academic world it has relevance for all disciplines yet is often dismissed as a niche market or someone else's domain This collection explores how academic avoidance of disability studies and disability theory is indicative of social prejudice and highlights conversely how the academy can and does engage with disability studies This innovative book brings together work in the humanities and the social sciences and draws on the riches of cultural diversity to challenge institutional and disciplinary avoidance Divided into three parts the first looks at how educational institutions and systems implicitly uphold double standards which can result in negative experiences for staff and students who are disabled The second part explores how disability studies informs and improves a number of academic disciplines from social work to performance arts The final part shows how more diverse cultural engagement offers a way forward for the academy demonstrating ways in which we can make more explicit the interdisciplinary significance of disability studies and by extension disability theory activism experience and culture Disability Avoidance and the Academy Challenging Resistance will interest students and scholars of disability studies education studies and cultural studies

The Experimental City James Evans, Andrew Karvonen, Rob Raven, 2016-05-20 This book explores how the concept of urban experimentation is being used to reshape practices of knowledge production in urban debates about resilience climate change governance and socio technical transitions With contributions from leading scholars and case studies from the Global North and South from small to large scale cities this book suggests that urban experiments offer novel modes of engagement governance and politics that both challenge and complement conventional strategies The book is organized around three cross cutting themes Part I explores the logics of urban experimentation different approaches and how and why they are deployed Part II considers how experiments are being staged within cities by whom and with what effects Part III examines how entire cities or groups of cities are constructed as experiments This book seeks to contribute a deeper and more socially and politically nuanced understanding of how urban experiments shape cities and drive wider changes in society providing a framework to examine the phenomenon of urban experimentation in conceptual and empirical detail Craft Communities

Susan Luckman,Nicola Thomas,2023-12-14 Craft Communities addresses the social groups old and new which have developed around craft production and consumption exploring the social and cultural impact of contemporary practices of making Addressing a wide range of crafting practice from yarnbombs to Shetlands shawls brassware to paper crafting in a variety of regional and national contexts the contributors consider how craft practices operate collectively in the home communities businesses workshops schools social enterprises and online It further identifies how social media has emerged as a key driver of the Third Wave of craft From Etsy to Instagram Twitter to Pinterest online communities of the handmade are changing the way people buy and sell make and meet European Cinema and Television Ib Bondebjerg,Eva Novrup

Redvall,Andrew Higson,2016-04-19 This book offers comparative studies of the production content distribution and reception of film and television drama in Europe The collection brings together scholars from the humanities and social sciences to focus on how new developments are shaped by national and European policies and practices and on the role of film and television in our everyday lives The chapters explore key trends in transnational European film and television fiction addressing issues of co production and collaboration and of how cultural products circulate across national borders The chapters investigate how watching film and television from neighbouring countries can be regarded as a special kind of cultural encounter with the possibility of facilitating reflections on national differences within Europe and negotiations of what characterizes a national or a European identity respectively The First Global Integrated Marine Assessment United Nations,2017-04-17 The World Ocean Assessment or to give its full title The First Global Integrated Marine Assessment is the outcome of the first cycle of the United Nations Regular Process for Global Reporting and Assessment of the State of the Marine Environment including Socioeconomic Aspects The Assessment provides vital scientifically grounded bases for the consideration of ocean issues including climate change by governments intergovernmental agencies non governmental agencies and all other stakeholders and policymakers involved in ocean affairs Together with future assessments and related initiatives it will support the implementation of the recently adopted 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development particularly its ocean related goals Moreover it will also form an important reference text for marine science courses Spiritual and Religious Tourism Ruth Dowson, Jabar Yaqub, Razaq Raj, 2019-08-12 This book reviews tourist motivations for making religious or spiritual journeys and the management aspects related to them It explores sacred journeys across both traditional religions such as Christianity and Islam and newer forms of pilgrimage faith systems and quasi religious activities such as sport music and food Demonstrating to the reader the intrinsic elements and events that play a crucial role within the destination management process it provides a timely re assessment of the increasing interconnections between religion and spirituality as a motivation for travel Providing researchers and students of tourism religious studies anthropology and related subjects with an important review of the topic this book aims to bridge the ever widening gap between specialists within the religious tourism management and education sectors Towards Good Order at Sea Thomas Mandrup, Francois Vre~, 2015-03-01 The problems originating from the resultant bad order at sea can be directly felt on land when smuggling terrorism and related criminal activities operate more or less unhindered The book provides an important mapping of the challenges preventing good order at sea off the African coast and East Africa in particular Rear Admiral N Wang Commandant Royal Danish Defence College Dynamic Shipping and Port Development in the Globalized Economy Paul Yae-Woo Lee, Kevin Cullinane, 2016-04-29 This two volume book presents an in depth analysis of many of the most important issues facing today s shipping and port sectors Volume 1 of Dynamic Shipping and Port Development in the Globalized Economy focuses on the application of theory to practice in Maritime Logistics Fiction, Invention and Hyper-reality Carole M. Cusack, Pavol Kosnác, 2016-11-18 The twentieth century was a period of rapid change for religion Secularisation resulted in a dramatic fall in church attendance in the West and the 1950s and 1960s saw the introduction of new religions including the International Society for Krishna Consciousness ISKCON the Church of Scientology and the Children of God New religions were regarded with suspicion by society in general and Religious Studies scholars alike until the 1990s when the emergence of a second generation of new new religions based on popular cultural forms including films novels computer games and comic books and highly individualistic spiritualities confirmed the utter transformation of the religio spiritual landscape Indeed Scientology and ISKCON appeared almost traditional and conservative when compared to the radically de institutionalised eclectic parodic fun loving and experimental fiction based invented and hyper real religions In this book scholarly treatments of cutting edge religious and spiritual trends are brought into conversation with contributions by representatives of Dudeism the Church of All Worlds the Temple of the Jedi Order and Tolkien spirituality groups This book will simultaneously entertain shock challenge and delight scholars of religious studies as well as those with a wider interest in new religious movements Neighbourhood Perceptions of the Ukraine Crisis Gerhard Besier, Katarzyna Stoklosa, 2016-11-03 Recent events in Ukraine and Russia and the subsequent incorporation of Crimea into the Russian state with the support of some circles of inhabitants of the peninsula have shown that the desire of people to belong to the Western part of Europe should not automatically be assumed Discussing different perceptions of the Ukrainian Russian war in neighbouring countries this book offers an analysis of the conflicts and issues connected with the shifting of the border regions of Russia and Ukraine to show how material and psychological borders are never completely stable ideas The contributors historians sociologists anthropologists and political scientists from across Europe use an interdisciplinary and comparative approach to explore the different national and transnational perceptions of a possible future role for Russia

Management Science in Fisheries Charles T.T. Edwards,Dorothy J. Dankel,2016-02-26 A key goal of fisheries management is to regulate extractive pressure on a resource so as to ensure social economic and ecological sustainability This text provides an accessible entry point for students and professionals to management science as developed in fisheries in order to facilitate uptake of the latest ideas and methods Traditional management approaches have relied upon a stock assessment based on existing understanding of resource status and dynamics and a prediction of the likely future response to a static management proposal However all such predictions include an inherent degree of uncertainty and the last few decades have seen the emergence of an adaptive approach that uses feedback control to account for unknown future behaviour Feedback is achieved via a control rule which defines a relationship between perceived status of the resource and a management action Evaluations of such rules usually include computer simulation testing across a broad range of uncertainties so that an appropriate and robust rule can be selected by stakeholders and managers The book focuses on this approach which is usually referred to as Management Strategy Evaluation The book is enriched by case study examples from different parts of the world as well as insights into the theory and practice from those actively involved in the science of fisheries management
