Assessment of Reading in International Studies Jenny Lenkeit, Knut Schwippert, 2020-05-21 This book brings together contributions from different scholarly contexts that address a diverse range of focused topics as well as empirical and conceptual perspectives on research with international studies Some chapters focus on technical aspects exploring opportunities for drawing causal inferences from the data and investigating biases originating in distributional scale properties Others are of a more conceptual nature addressing changes in the relevance of socio economic indicators across time and countries examining the exposure of mother tongue and English instruction on performance and investigating the effects of test construction on gender difference The discussion takes a much needed meta perspective on the usefulness of international large scale assessments for educational research and allows reflection upon possibilities and opportunities for their improvement This book was originally published as a special issue of Assessment in Education African Languages in Basic Education Karsten Legère, 1996 African Books in Print, 1978 Resources in Education, 1994 Whose Education For All? Birgit Brock-Utne, 2002-06 This book examines the new donor concept education for all which was coined at a World Bank initiated conference in 1990 in Jomtien Thailand The author uses her experience to examine what is going on in the education sector Kagisano Ka Thuto Botswana. National Commission on Education, 1977 The African Book Publishing Record, 2003 Education for Kagisano : study tour of educational institutions in Botswana by Directors of African Curriculum Centres from May 25 to 30, 1980 Udo Bude, 1980 English in Australia, 2003

Heritage Language Policies around the World Corinne A. Seals, Sheena Shah, 2017-09-18 Heritage language policies define the context in which heritage languages are maintained or abandoned by communities and this volume describes and analyzes international policy strategies as well as the implications for the actual heritage language speakers This volume brings together heritage language policy case studies from around the world foregrounding globalization by covering five regions the Americas Europe Africa Asia and Australasia The countries profiled include the United States Canada Argentina Norway Sweden Ireland Uganda Namibia Morocco Japan South Korea Singapore New Zealand Australia and Fiji This volume also highlights an expanded definition of heritage language choosing to focus on individual and community identities and therefore including both Indigenous and immigrant languages Focusing specifically on language policy relating to heritage languages the chapters address key questions such as Are heritage languages included or excluded from the national language policy discourse What are the successes and shortcomings of efforts to establish heritage language policies What is the definition of heritage language in official usage by the local regional government and stakeholders How are these language policies perceived by the actual heritage language communities
