Comments: I was at the 20th Supply Squadron from 08 December 1983 to 07 December 1987. When I arrived I didn't even know what a DEROS was. I worked in MICAP and in the engine shop at a dedicated support unit. Heyford was a great assignment for me and my family and we made a lot of friends we have lost contact with and would love to hear from everyone who may have been there at that time. We lived in Brackley and Bicester Housing area. I arrived as an A1C, alone and departed as SSgt with my Wife, two daughters, brother-in-law and a dog named Miss Ellie. It was a very social time and we met a lot of people at the Three Shoes and the Shakespeare. I am still active duty getting ready to retire. I am a flight chief for Air Force Recruiting service and have been since departing Heyford. I thank all the people who put together this great web page!
