Bureau of Research and Survey,1924 Reference and Information Services Richard E. Bopp,Linda C. Smith,2011-05-23 Reflecting the dramatic changes shaped by rapidly developing technologies over the past six years this new fourth edition of Reference and Information Services takes the introduction to reference sources and services significantly beyond the content of the first three editions In Part I Concepts and Processes chapters have been revised and updated to reflect new ideas and methods in the provision of reference service in an era when many users have access to the Web In Part II Information Sources and Their Use discussion of each source type has been updated to encompass key resources in print and on the Web where an increasing number of freely available sources join those purchased or licensed by libraries A number of new authors are contributors to this new edition bringing to their chapters their experience as teachers of reference and as practitioners in different types of libraries Discussions of services in Part I integrate digital reference as appropriate to each topic such as how to conduct a reference interview online using instant messaging Boxes interspersed in the text are used to present scenarios for discussion to highlight key concepts or to present excerpts from important documents Discussions of sources in Part II place more emphasis on designing effective search strategies using both print and digital resources The chapter on selection and evaluation of sources addresses the changing nature of reference collections and how to evaluate new types of sources Each chapter concludes with an updated list of additional readings to guide further study A new companion website will provide links to Web accessible readings and resources as well as additional scenarios for discussion and example search strategies to supplement those presented in the text Report of the Secretary of the Senate from ... United States. Congress. Senate,1990-10 Risk, Science, and Politics Kathryn Harrison,George Hoberg,1994-11-18 Paying particular attention to how politicians and bureaucrats in the two countries deal with the scientific uncertainty that pervades environmental decision making Harrison and Hoberg analyse case studies of seven controversial substances suspected of causing cancer in humans the pesticides Alar and alachlor urea formaldehyde foam insulation radon gas dioxin saccharin and asbestos They weigh the strengths and weaknesses of each country s approach according to five criteria stringency and timeliness of the regulatory decision balancing of risks and benefits by decision makers opportunities for public participation and the interpretation of science in regulatory decision making The

Canadian approach is exemplified by closed decision making case by case review that relies heavily on expert judgement and limited public debate about the scientific basis of regulatory decisions In contrast regulatory science in the United States is characterized by publication of lengthy rationales for regulatory decisions reliance on standardized procedures for risk assessment and controversy surrounding the interpretation of scientific evidence International Encyclopedia of Information and Library Science John Feather,Paul Sturges,2003-09-02 This eagerly awaited new edition has been fully revised and updated to take full account of the many and radical changes which have taken place since the Encyclopedia was originally conceived Iconoclasm and the Museum Stacy Boldrick,2020-09-24 Iconoclasm and the Museum addresses the museum s historic tendency to be silent about destruction through an exploration of institutional attitudes to iconoclasm or image breaking and the concept s place in public display Presenting a selection of focused case studies Boldrick examines long standing desires to deface dismantle obscure or destroy works of art and historic artefacts as well as motivations to protect and display broken objects Considering the effects of iconoclastic practices on artworks and cultural artefacts and how those practices are addressed in institutions the book examines changing attitudes to the intentional destruction of powerful artworks in the past and present It ends with an analysis of creative destruction in contemporary art making and proposes that we are entering a new phase for museums in which they acknowledge the critical roles destruction and loss play in the lives of objects and in contemporary political life Iconoclasm and the Museum will be important reading for academics and students in fields such as museum and gallery studies archaeology art history arts management curatorial studies cultural studies history heritage and religious studies The book should also be of great interest to museum professionals curators and collections management specialists and artists The Old Service-books of the English Church Christopher Wordsworth,Henry Littlehales,1904 Can You Recommend a Good Book on Indexing? Bella Hass Weinberg,1998 This book contains a selection of top journal reviews of popular books on indexing The items reviewed fall under the following headings general and theoretical works book indexing database indexing and records management thesauri and computer assisted and automatic indexing Cassell & the Publishers Association Directory of Publishing ,1990 Information Service ,1927 National Library of Medicine Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.), Canadian Books in Print ,1982 Directory of Publishing 2014 ,2013-10-24 Now in its 37th edition and compiled in association with the Publishers Association this is the most authoritative detailed trade directory available for the United Kingdom and the Republic of Ireland listing over 900 book publishers Comprehensive entries include where available full contact details including addresses and websites details of distribution and sales and marketing agents key personnel listing of main fields of activity information on annual turnover numbers of new titles and numbers of employees ISBN prefixes including those for imprints and series details of trade association membership information on overseas representation details of associated and parent companies In addition to the detailed entries on publishers the Directory
