

Section	Section 1: Identification and evaluation of sources	Marks	Level descriptor
Section A: Identification and evaluation of sources (6 marks)	This section requires students to analyse in detail two of the sources that they will use in their investigation. The sources can be either primary or secondary sources. In this section students must <ul style="list-style-type: none"> clearly state the question they have chosen to investigate (this must be stated as a question) include a brief explanation of the nature of the two sources they have selected for detailed analysis, including an explanation of their relevance to the investigation analyse two sources in detail. With reference to the origins, purpose and content, the student should analyse the value and limitations of the two sources in relation to the investigation. A crucial element of this section of the internal assessment task is formulating an appropriate question to investigate. The six key concepts for the History course (causation, consequence, continuity, change, significance and perspectives) can be a very useful starting point in helping students to formulate a question. The following are examples of historical investigations recently submitted by students. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> How systematic were the deportations of the Jewish population of Dusseldorf to Mirak between 1941 and 1942? How significant were economic problems as a cause of the Bamberg Witch Trials (1623–1633)? What were the most important reasons for the failure of Operation Market Garden? To what extent was weak leadership responsible for the collapse of the Egyptian Old Kingdom in 2125 BC? 	0	The work does not reach a standard described by the descriptors below.
		1–2	The question for investigation has been stated. The student has identified and selected appropriate sources, but there is little or no explanation of the relevance of the sources to the investigation. The response describes, but does not analyse or evaluate, two of the sources.
		3–4	An appropriate question for investigation has been stated. The student has identified and selected appropriate sources, and there is some explanation of the relevance of the sources to the investigation. There is some analysis and evaluation of two sources, but reference to their value and limitations is limited.
		5–6	An appropriate question for investigation has been clearly stated. The student has identified and selected appropriate and relevant sources, and there is a clear explanation of the relevance of the sources to the investigation. There is a detailed analysis and evaluation of two sources with explicit discussion of the value and limitations of two of the sources for the investigation, with reference to the origins, purpose and content of the two sources.
