Thursby, 2016-08-23 This is the 2nd edition of Technological Innovation. Profiting from technological innovation requires scientific and engineering expertise and an understanding of how business and legal factors facilitate commercialization. This volume presents a multidisciplinary view of issues in technology commercialization and entrepreneurship. Demarketing Nigel Bradley, Jim Blythe, 2013-10-23 We all understand the basic principles underpinning marketing activity to identify unfulfilled needs and desires and boost demand for the solutions a product is offering. The mantra is always sell more. De marketing tries for the very opposite. Why would a company actively try to decrease demand? There are many good reasons to do so: a firm cannot supply large enough quantities or wants to limit supply to a region of narrow profit margin. Or crucially to discourage undesirable customers: those that could be bad for brand reputation or in the case of the finance sector high risk. De marketing can yield effective solutions to these issues effectively curtailing demand yet crucially not destroying it. Nevertheless the fundamental negativity of de marketing strategies often causes organisations to hide them from view and as a result they are rarely studied. This then is the first book to cast light on the secretive counterintuitive world of de marketing deconstructing its mysteries and demonstrating how to incorporate them into a profit driven marketing plan. A selection of thought leaders in strategic marketing mix theory with illustrative global cases providing insight into how these strategies have been employed in practice and measuring their successes and failures. It's a must read for any student or researcher that wants to think differently about marketing. Marketing Tourism and Hospitality Richard George, 2025-05-11 This second edition of this comprehensive textbook explores the fundamental principles of marketing applied to tourism and hospitality businesses placing special emphasis on SMEs in the international tourism industry. It includes examples from a wide range of destinations from emerging markets to high income countries. Taking a comprehensive approach the book

Marketing and AI: Shaping the Future Together Vincent Jeseo, Jasmine Parajuli, 2024-12-23. The growing availability of data, intelligent computational systems, and affordable storage and software has spurred a keen interest among marketers to explore new artificial intelligence (AI) methods and applications to enhance outcomes. However, this technological race can lead marketers to hastily implement AI platforms without a clear objective, causing organizations to lose focus, become disconnected from customers, waste resources, and blindly follow a never-ending trend. This book explores the influence of AI on the marketing field. Featuring full papers presented at the 2024 Academy of Marketing Science Annual Conference in Coral Gables, FL, USA, this book offers research, theories, methodologies, and case studies on the use of AI by marketers in various areas to better serve customers and satisfy their needs. It also explores the role that academics play in supporting marketing scholars, students, researchers, consumers, practitioners, and stakeholders in understanding and navigating these technological changes. Founded in 1971, the Academy of Marketing Science is an international organization dedicated to promoting timely explorations of phenomena related to the science of marketing in theory, research, and practice. Among its services to members and the community at large, the Academy offers conferences congresses and symposia that attract delegates from around the world Presentations from these events are published in this Proceedings series which offers a comprehensive archive of volumes reflecting the evolution of the field Volumes deliver cutting edge research and insights complementing the Academy's flagship journals the Journal of the Academy of Marketing Science JAMS and AMS Review
